SPAIN'S ATTITUDE TOWARD VATICAN

Premier in Statement Declares His Government Will Stand Firm.

CATHOLICS MAY WAGE FIGHT

Asserts Rich Carlists Responsible for Trouble in Northern Part of Country—Willing to Settle With Holy See.

Paris, Aug. 12.—The Paris Temps today prints a long, sensational interview with Jose Canalejasy Mendes, the Spanish premier, covering the recent events which culminated in the severance of diplomatic relations between the Spanish government and the Holy See, as well as his future programme, which the paper says the Premier dictated.

Premier Canalejas declares that the movement in the north of Spain is directed by rich Carlists "who are inveterate separatists and enemies of the remainder of the country," and integralists, "intransigeant Catholics whose only programme is the reign of Jesus Christ.

The prime minister affirms that he possesses knowledge that the committee behind the movement spent 400,000 pesetas ($80,000) in giving the manifestants of July 10th meal tickets, beside their railroad fares. After the failure of the manifestation Senor Canaljas says the agitators organized juntas of which—"and I announce this publicly for the first time—village priests are the leaders." He says that he officially protested to the bishop of Victoria and to the Vatican, but both of them replied that it was none of their concern. He says he will welcome interpellations of the Carlists which will give an opportunity to "lay bare the detestable conspiracy against civilization, the king and the country."

"There is no religious question in Spain," the Premier continues; "it is simply an effort to exploit religious sentiment upon the ground now disproved, that the Spanish majority is clerical. The majority, as was indisputably proved at the elections, is anti-clerical. Most of the municipalities sent addresses approving the government's policy. I have received 150,000 telegrams urging me to continue this policy."

Senor Canalejas declares that he does not propose to abuse the power confided in him, but that he will use it firmly and resolutely to establish a preponderance of civil power. It is his intention to pass a law insuring neutral official education not hostile or favorable to any creed of philosophy, but free from any dogma. He insists that the policy of the government is not directed against the religious orders, but he would have them pay taxes from which they were exempted by conservative governments, and the number of orders reduced.

"If I cannot reduce the number of orders by an agreement with the Vatican, I will by law," he declares.

The Premier expresses unqualified satisfaction at the reports that the Vatican now desires conciliation, and says he will make every effort to reach an agreement with the Holy See, but he maintains the bill interdicting further orders cannot be withdrawn. "I could not withdraw that bill if I would," he says.

"The liberal party and the majority in the cortes are united upon that point. Different political groups have different ideas, but they are ont against clericalism.

Senor Canalejas frankly states that the time has arrived when the question must be solved. If the liberals fail, a popular explosion, he says, is sure to follow, and he understands perfectly that his adversaries wanted a rupture with the Vatican in the hope that it would mean his downfall, under the illusion that the return of the conservatives to power would enable them to maintain the status quo. "But," the Premier says, "the status quo is finished forever in Spain."

The Prime Minister declares the reports that his policy is inspired by the counsels of the French government and the royal family of England do great injustice to King Alfonso. He explains that the government's object in hastening a solution of the religious question was to clear the way for the introduction of vast economic and administrative reforms for which the people are clamoring.

The Premier concludes by saying that he has been minister four times, retiring on each occasion because he could not put into practice his personal ideas. "But now," he says, "I have the power, desire and purpose to succeed. Threats will not deter me. I am in command, and so long as I have a majority in the Cortes and the confidence of the king, I shall remain."

Demands His Prosecution.

Madrid, Aug. 12.—El Liberal in its issue today demands the prosecution of the Cure of Cuenca, capital of the Province of Cuenca for exhorting the soldiers to obey the Pope rather than the Government.

The Bishop of Tuy who in 1906 attacked Count Romanones then minister of justice for the government measures with regard to civil marriages, today telegraphed an indignant protest to Senor Canaeljas against the attitude taken by the premier concerning the vatican.

RED MEN'S MONEY WENT TO LAWYERS

Attorneys Gobbled Up Enormous Sums in Many Oklahoma Land Cases.

FEES RANGE IN THE MILLIONS

Probing Deeper Into Affairs of Indians and Gore Charges—Investigation Going On at Sulphur—Witnesses.

Sulpnur, Okla., Aug. 12.—Lawyers' expense accounts running as high as $300,000 a single fee—already paid amounting to $750,000 and contingent fees still pending that would aggregate about $5,000,000 figured in the investigation of the Indian land affairs by the special committee appointed by the House of Representatives today.

It was pointed out that the Indians never had secured large amounts of money due them without having to pay larger sums in the shape of fees, and although they employed regular lawyers, on yearly salaries, extra fees were constantly paid for the employment of special counsel. The special fee of $750,000 was paid several years ago to J. F. McMurray and his law partners after they had prosecuted what are known as the "citizenship case" which it was stated kept off the rolls 32,000 persons, who wanted to participate in the claims against the government.

By the winning of this suit, it was explained that the value of the property to the Indians, who remained on the rolls was enhanced $16,000,000 on a basis of $5,000 for each of the 32,000 claimants, who were kept off. The sale of the property and the division of the proceeds is still being fought for by the Indians.

This testimony developed in the examination of George F. Scott, a Choctaw. Scott was active in securing signatures for the McMurray contracts to promote the approval of which by Congress, Senator Gore charges that on May 6th last he was offered a bribe of $25,000 or $50,000

McMurray's contracts, Scott testified, if carried out in their entirety, would dispose of about $50,000,000 worth of property which on a ten per cent. "attorneys fee" basis would result in a net profit to McMurray and his associates of almost $5,000,000. This fee, according to Senator Gore and members of the committee who interrogated the witnesses would be paid for services that the government had already promised to give the Indians without cost. Scott also showed in his testimony that the cost of employing McMurray would be in addition to $30,000,000 now paid annually to regular attorneys.

It was Scott, who testified he had sent telegrams to Washington urging the approval of the contracts. He had been working for McMurray without any written or verbal agreement he said, as to sharing in the fee, and had induced many Indians to sign. He worked in this respect among the Indians despite the opposition of Green McCurtain, chief of 18,000 Choctaws.

In one telegram to Richard Adams, an attorney at Washington, he referred to Vice President Sherman and Senator Chas Curtis, of Kansas, as "understanding better than any one else what the Indians wanted."

TAFT AND DRAPER CUPS.

American and Spanish Yachts Contest—Event Next Week.

Marblehead, Mass., Aug. 12.—The American boats that will sail against the Spanish yachts next week for the President Taft and Governor Draper cups were selected tonight. They are the Harpoon, C. F. Adams, second, owner; Beaver, C. H. W. Foster, and Cima, Guy Lowell.

The Spanish boats, the Chonta, Mosquito II., and Papoose, arrived in the harbor tonight and expect to be under sail tomorrow. The international races will begin on the 17th, and the yachts will race every day except Sunday until the contest is decided.

Two and one-half races were sailed today, the Cima winning the first, a windward and leeward affair, and the Harpoon the second, over a triangular course.

VANDERBILT'S SLOOP WON.

Closing Event of New York Club Annual Cruise—Contestants.

Newport, R. I., Aug. 12.—Cornelius Vanderbilt's sloop Aurora, sailed by W. Butler Duncan, Jr., won the king's cup, the last event of the New York Yacht Club's annual cruise, under splendid sailing conditions today. She won by a margin of less than a minute on time allowance, over the sloop Winsome, which in turn had about half a minute advantage over the schooner Elmina at the finish. The trophy was the one donated by the late King Edward VII, of England, and out of respect to his memory the usual jollification on the flagship at the conclusion of the cruise was omitted tonight.

The race was one of 35 1-2 miles over a triangular course, with the start off Brenton Reef Lightship.

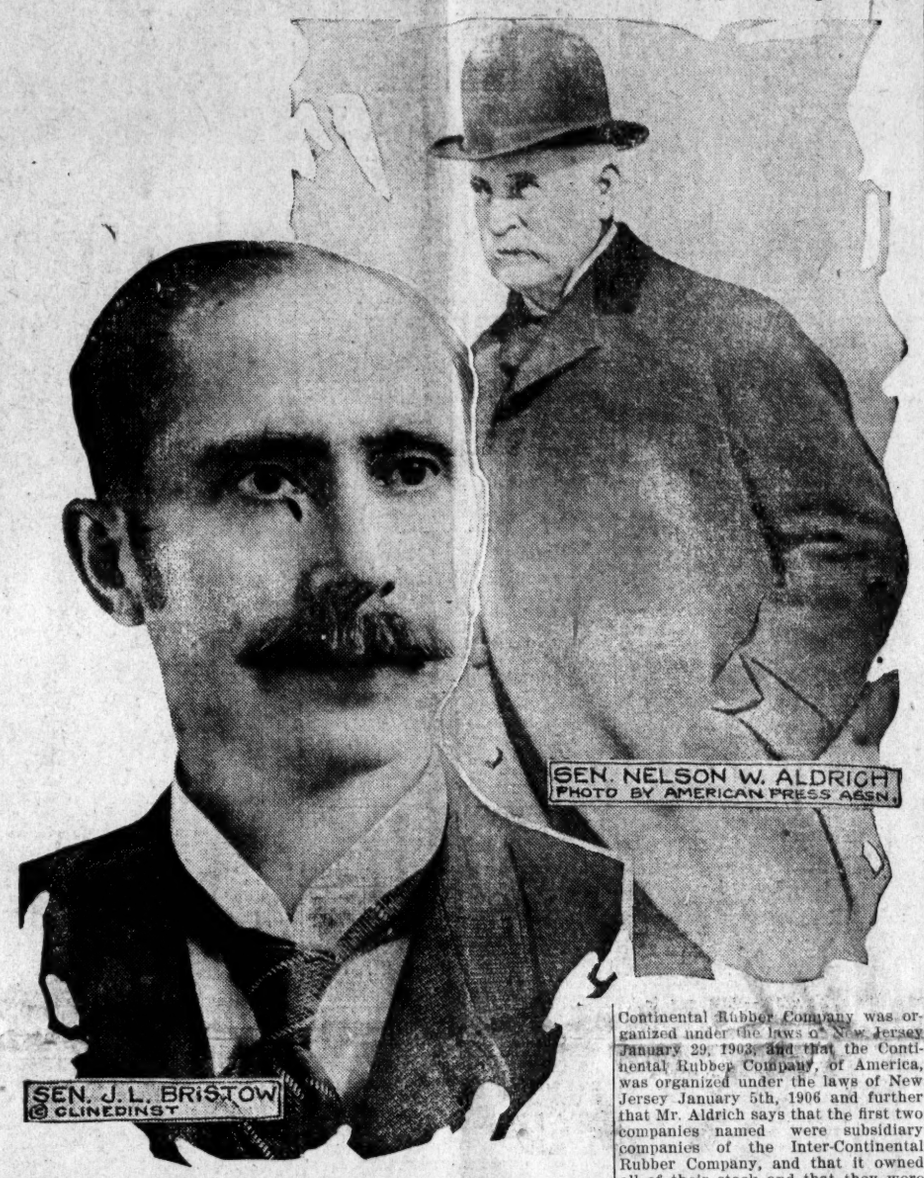
United States Senators in Snarl Over Republican Tariff Inquiry



Milwaukee, Wis., Aug. 12.—United States Senator Joseph L. Bristow, of Kansas, tonight in a speech here, made reply to the letter of Senator Aldrich, wherein the latter defended himself against the charges of the Kansas Senator relating to the tariff on rubber. Senator Bristow launched into the arena by saying that Senator Aldrich declares that the Inter Rubber Company is not a trust and at the same time admits it is a holding company".

Senator Bristow then took up Mr. Aldrich's declaration that he, nor his family had profited directly or indirectly by the tariff on manufactured rubber, "yet", Senator Bristow said, "he admits that he is producing millions of pounds of crude rubber per annum, selling it to American manufacturers and that he increased the duty on their products when they did not need it for protection.

Then referring to his own speech at Winfield, Kas., on July 9th, Senator Bristow declared that Mr. Aldrich took exception to his remarks on the rubber duty especially.

"He ignores the other features of my speech," Mr. Bristow said.

Going into the questions of the organization of the Inter-Continental Rubber Company, Senator Bristow quoted Mr. Aldrich as saying that the Continental Rubber Company was organized under the laws of New Jersey January 29, 1903, and that the Continental Rubber Company, of America, was organized under the laws of New Jersey January 5th, 1906 and further that Mr. Aldrich says that the first two companies named were subsidiary companies of the Inter-Continental Rubber Company, and that it owned all of their stock and that they were organized for the sake of convenience.

Mr. Bristow asked: "How could they be subsidiary companies of the Inter-Continental Rubber Company and organized for its convenience when both of them were organized before it was."

Concluding his speech Senator Bristow says: "I should have been glad if Mr. Aldrich had said something about the lead and the Guggenheims' smelting trust, and about Mr. Lippitt's testimony in regard to the increased duty on cotton cloths and stated why he put increased duty on those cloths when the manufacturers said they did not want it."

BUILDINGS SINKING IN CAVE

Situation at Staunton, Va., Alarms Residents, and Government Aid Has Been Secured—Reasons for Cave-In.

Staunton, Va., Aug. 12.—The cave-in which occurred here yesterday in the heart of the city continues to alarm residents, and there has been a general exodus from adjacent buildings. The fire house is now sinking, and the public school building is threatened. A large portion of the two-story residence of Prof. C. L. Wilson has entirely disappeared in the crevice, and the backyard has sunk 30 feet below the house level.

It is now believed that the phenomenon was caused by the arched-over creek which has been undermining the buildings adjacent to it. The city officials have sent for engineers to investigate the situation and to decide how to check the creek from making further inroads on buildings in the city.

Washington, Aug. 12.—In response to an appeal to the geological survey from Staunton, Va., F. B. VanHorn, assistant chief geologist, left here tonight to investigate the cave-ins which have caused heavy property damage in the Virginia towns within the past two days.

The theory held by government geologists is that the trouble was caused by water percolating through the limestone, which underlies that entire section, and thus has weakened the foundations of buildings and caused them to give way. Mr. Van Horn is familiar with the geological structure of that portion of Virginia, and from press reports he judges that dissolving limestone is responsible for the trouble.

Louisville, Ky., Aug. 12.—Joseph Wendling, former janitor of St. James' Catholic Church, who returned to Louisville today after a remarkable chase, to stand trial on the charge of killing little Alma Kellner in the church basement, is tonight a prisoner in the Jefferson county jail.

MAYOR GAYNOR MAY RECOVER

Physicians Noted Slight Improvement in His Condition Yesterday—Still in Danger Zone—Neck Wound Puzzling.

New York, Aug. 13.—"The Mayor continues to show improvement. He is sleeping at this time." The foregoing bulletin, issued at midnight, was signed by Drs. Stewart and Arlitz.

Another day has passed and Mayor William J. Gaynor, shot in the neck on Tuesday by James J. Gallagher, shows no symptoms of blood poisoning. He continues to rest well at intervals, to take nourishment when desired, and if in the bulletins his surgeons should disguise nothing, his condition is favorable toward ultimate recovery.

The bugbear of septicaemia is not yet passed, however, nor is the possibility that an artery or a blood vessel has been scraped by the bullet. With these possibilities ever present, he is still in the danger zone, and will be for more than a week yet.

The same feeling of anxiety that was evinced last night is felt in lesser degree tonight, but there is no going behind the official bulletins.

All of the heads of the city departments called at the hospital during the day, but few were allowed to see the patient, and then for a fleeting visit only. The callers chatted with Mrs. Gaynor in an ante-room, and none in the party expressed anything but a cheerful view. Drs. Arlitz and Dowd remained at the bedside almost continually throughout the day, however.

One of the most cheery statements of the day came from the Mayor's son, Rufus, who said this afternoon:

"Barring accident, Mayor Gaynor's recovery is practically assured."

Robert Adamson, the Mayor's secretary, explaining what "barring accident" meant, referred to the possibility that an artery or vein had been injured by the bullet and might begin to slough off at any time. This is a contingency which must be reckoned with for at least a week to come. Concerning an operation, Mr. Adamson took the same view heretofore expressed by the physicians.

"They won't operate," he said, "unless it is absolutely necessary. If the presence of the bullet causes any irritation or proves botnersome, it will be taken out; otherwise it will remain until the Mayor is completely recovered, or perhaps never removed."

The first words uttered by James J. Gallagher, the Mayor's assailant, when he woke in his cell in Jersey City this morning, were "How is Mayor Gaynor?"

"He is said to be getting along nicely," replied the warden, and Gallagher went on:

"Well, I am glad he is recovering. I am sorry for my act. I slept well last night, and it was the best sleep I have had since I have been here."

Ted Stanley, of Guilford College, N. C., Fatally Shot, and Others Seriously Hurt—Riot Narrowly Averted.

Danville, Va., Aug. 12.—A race riot which for a time threatened to assume very serious proportions, occurred last night in Southampton county, Virginia, on a mixed excursion train returning from Norfolk to Greensboro, N. C. As a result of the trouble Ted Stanley, a young white man of Guilford College, N. C., was shot and perhaps fatally injured. Robert Jones, a youth about 16 years of age, of Greensboro, was severely beaten on the head with a bottle.

When the train arrived here this morning the two injured white men were taken to the general hospital, and four negroes were arrested at the station. Several of the white passengers identified Sam Macklin, a Reidsville negro, as the one who shot Stanley.

Ill feeling appears to have engendered at Pinners Point, when some of the negroes crowded into the white coaches. When the train was passing Franklin one of the white passengers went into the negro coach and purchased a bottle of whisky. One of the negroes jerked it from his pocket. This appears to have been the beginning of a fight in which pistols and bottles figured conspicuously.

TAFT PLANS NEW MOVE IN POLITICS

Believed Ballinger and Cannon Will Step Down for Party's Sake.

READJUSTMENT IN PROGRESS

Senator Aldrich Privileged Visitor at Summer Capital Yesterday—Would Break "Solid South" With Tennessee.

Beverly, Mass, Aug. 12.—Certain events of today, following incidents of the past week or so, lead inevitably to the conclusion that a complete political readjustment in circles close to President Taft is in progress. Senator Nelson W. Aldrich, of Rhode Island, called to see the President early today. The President was gratified that Senator Aldrich had replied to Senator Bristow's charges regarding the tariff. In doing so, it is said that the Senator from Rhode Island performed an act which fitted exactly into a programme which has been framed by party leaders close to the President.

Although he is not to retire until March 4th, 1911, and Senator Aldrich confirmed to President Taft today his intention to do so the readjustment plans which plainly are in progress apparently treat whatever influence Mr. Aldrich may have had with the President as a thing of the past.

The elimination of Mr. Aldrich, according to clase political advisers is soon to be followed by the retirement of Secretary Richard Ballinger from the cabinet. The Republican party is facing one of the most crucial campaigns in its history this Fall and the leaders who have been coming more and more into influence with the President are arriving daily to do all they can to bring about an adjustment of the differences within the party.

Mr. Ballinger practically has lost all of his personal fortune in defending himself against the attacks that have been made upon him. If the Secretary is to recover these losses, it is said he must soon resume the lucrative practice of law which he left in his home State to take up the arduous duties of head of the Interior Department.

The retirement of Mr. Ballinger is fixed for September 15th. The Congressional committee will have reported by that time, and the date is sufficiently early to take the so-called Ballinger issue out of the campaign.

The third move in contemplation is said to be directed against Speaker Cannon. It is not admitted in Beverly that Mr. Cannon will even be a candidate for the Speakership.

Once it is known that President Taft would like to see a change in the Speakership, however, it is believed that all doubt as to the result would be removed.

That Beverly is being made the headquarters of the movement to set the Republican House in order is now generally admitted. The various moves are being made quietly but effectively.

Reports have reached Beverly that the recent results in Kansas and Iowa were due largely to the activity of Speaker Cannon in Kansas, to the charges against Senator Aldrich, and doubt in the West as to whether he actually intended to retire. The situation developed in these two States evidently has made an impression upon the party leaders that has stirred them to action.

Senator Aldrich would not discuss his call on the President today other than to say it was incidental to a cruise along the New England coast.

The Senator talked with the President regarding his rubber statement

SIXTH DISTRICT HEARINGS BEGUN

Committee Appointed by State Chairman to Consider Congressional Situation.

THREE SESSIONS YESTERDAY

Line of Inquiry Not Well Defined and No Intimation of Possible Result of Inquiry—Mr. Godwin's Attitude.

Figuratively, as well as almost literally, "all is at sea" with reference to the probable result of the hearings now in progress at Wrightsville Beach by the committee of distinguished Democrats of North Carolina, appointed by the State Chairman to consider and report upon the unfortunate situation which has developed in the Sixth Congressional District over the Democratic nomination for the House of Representatives.

Although three sessions of the committee were held yesterday, the third continuing well into last night, there is not the slightest intimation from any one as to the probable outcome and no one can vouchsafe any well defined line which the inquiry is taking, the committee being out apparently for all the information it can get regardless of any particular phase of the controversy, which might give some idea of how the committee felt as to the proper recommendation for a settlement of the imbroglio. A dozen or more witnesses, all representing as many angles of the controversy were heard yesterday and last night and it seems now probable that all of today will again be consumed in the "taking of testimony."

All members of the committee are here except ex-Lieutenant Governor Doughton, of Allegheny, who is engaged in an important case in court and will likely be unable to attend. Ex-Governor Aycock is conducting the examination of the various witnesses and ex-Judge A. C. Avery, of Morganton, is in the role of "anxious listener." The hearings are being conducted in a suite of rooms in the new annex of the Seashore Hotel and thus far the witnesses have been called by the committee apparently without reference to the faction they represent. Congressman Godwin was the first yesterday morning when the hearing began at 10:45 o'clock. He was in the room for about 45 minutes and was followed by the other "twin" nominee, Hon. O. L. Clark, of Clarkton, who was "on the carpet" not exceeding 45 minutes. Mr. J. C. Clifford, of Dunn, floor manager for Mr. Godwin in both conventions, was the last witness before the dinner recess completing his testimony at the afternoon session being before the committee in all about two and a half hours. The next witness was Hon. G. B. Patterson, of Maxton, permanent hairman of the convention which nominated Mr. Clark. He was with the committee not exceeding 40 minutes, the "yuther" chairman, State Senator George H. Bellamy, of Brunswick being the next witness. Mr. Bellamy was "under fire" about 40 minutes and emerged from the committee room to meet his friend, Patterson.

"Well, what did you tell 'em, George?" Mr. Patterson asked.

"I told 'em all about what you fellows did down here," suavely replied the Duke; "and what did you tell 'em, Gib?" he asked.

"I told 'em what you didn't do?" rejoined Mr. Patterson, and all hands sat down to compare notes.

The next witness was ex-Mayor William E. Springer, of New Hanover, who marched down the aisle and mounted the rostrum after the dinner recess of the fateful convention, and took possession by virtue of his election as chairman of the Congressional Executive Committee in the interim. Mr. Springer was on the "griddle" not exceeding 30 minutes and was followed by Messrs L. S. Fefel, of Brunswick, and N. L. Stephens, of Harnett, secretaries of the second convention which nominated Mr. Godwin. They testified and exhibited their records, after which Capt. W. P. Oldham, of Wilmington, was heard briefly just before a recess for supper was taken at 7 o'clock.

All the witnesses agreed that for the life of them they could not tell by the inquiries directed at them, just what the feeling of the committee seemed to be and it is certain now that the public will have to bide the meeting of the State Committee to be later called before anything definite is known. Members of the committee have eschewed the pleasures of the seashore and are working 12 hours a day in an honest effort to reach some conclusion about the whole matter without regard to any particular phase of the subject.

There was the greatest speculation yesterday as to Mr. Godwin's attitude with reference to abiding the decision of the committee. To all inquirers he said that he was before the committee by courtesy and through the invitation sent out a few days before their convening. To all direct questions as to whether he would abide the decis-

Wilmington took both ends of a doubleheader from the Raleigh Red Birds yesterday, playing a pretty game from the beginning, winning the first after Raleigh had bettered them by one tally, by putting across two runs in the eighth, and shutting them out in the second game, one to nothing.

Brooks twirled the first game for the locals and Jobson for the visitors, and both pitchers were in good form, although Jobson seemed to have a little the better of the control. In the second Hanks was sent in to pitch against Richardson, and came out at the big end, allowing only two hits in nine innings, while Richardson allowed only three.

Raleigh was out in order in the first, after which Hoffman singled to center, was advanced by Cooper and Tydeman was safe on first when Hoffman was thrown out at third on fielder's choice. While Orth was at bat Tydeman was caught stealing second, retiring the side. In the second after Mullaney had struck out, Simmons singled to the infield, and stole second, going to third on Keating's single to third, but Keating was caught stealing second, and Hawkins fanned.

In the last half, Orth led off with a screamer down first base foul line for two bases, and went to third on Kluttz's sacrifice, but Mills flew out to third, and Kite died on first, third to first. Raleigh was out in order in the third, and in the last half after Brooks and Dubbs had died on first Hoffman was safe on first by error of short, and stole second, but Cooper was out, third to first. In the fourth after two men were down, Mullaney singled to left, and Simmons was safe on first on error of Brooks, advancing Mullaney to second, but Keating went out short to first. Wilmington was out in order. Brooks fanned the first two up in the fifth, but Jobson was safe on error of Mills and Clemmons was given a pass, Bigbee ending the agony by aviating to short. In the other half, Mills flew out to center, Kite was given four balls, and went to second on Brooks' single to right. Dubbs was out on first, Kite and Brooks advancing on the put out, and while Hoffman was at bat, Kite scored on a wild pitch, and Brooks went to third, but Hoffman was out on first. In the sixth after Hobbs had skied to right, Mullaney singled to right, and went to second on Simmons' put-out on first, after which Keating hit to left field, but Mullaney was caught out at plate. In the last half after Cooper had expired on first, Tydeman was safe on error of third, and stole second while Orth was getting a free pass to first, but Kluttz ended the hope when he lined one to third baseman, who threw Tydeman out at second. In the seventh Hawkins was safe on error of Kite on throw to first, and went to second on McCormick's sacrifice. Jobson singled to second advancing Hawkins to third, and stole second. Clemmons flew to center, and Hawkins scored on throw to Kite to third when he hit Hawkins with the throw. Jobson was safe on third, and scored a moment later on Bigbee's single to left. Hobbs flew to Hoffman who made a spectacular leaping catch off the Durham, retiring the side.

In Wilmington's half Mills was out on first, and Kite fouled to catcher, after which Brooks followed with a long one down third base foul line which was good for two bags, but Dubbs couldn't find 'em at all and the side was retired without anything more doing.

In the eighth, Mullaney was given four balls on the start and went to second on Simmons' single to the infield. Keating sacrificed advancing both men, but Hawkins fouled to Mills, and McCormick was out on first. In the last half, Hoffman was hit by pitched ball, and Cooper hit to right field fence for two bases, advancing him to third. Tydeman hit a long sacrifice fly to left scoring Hoffman, and Orth hit one to center scoring Cooper. Kluttz died on first.

In Raleigh's ninth after Jobson had fanned, Clemmons singled to center, but Bigbee fanned, and Hobbs flew to right.

AFFAIRS AT STATE CAPITAL

Annual Report of Commissioner of Labor and Printing—Cross Country Ride by National Guard. Rifle Range to Raleigh.

(Special Star Telegram.)

Raleigh, N. C., Aug. 12. — There went out from the State Department of Labor and Printing, July 1st, inquiry blanks from all phases of industry in every section of the State, and the responses are coming in most promptly and completely in the history of the department, and this very important work of assembling in an annual report representations of the industries of the State.

This gives, as far as possible, the character and proportions of every manufacturing enterprise, mining and other industries; also representations of the agricultural conditions and remuneration in every section of the State. There is this year to be the most complete presentation of labor statistics yet undertaken by the department.

There is talk among the officers of the North Carolina National Guard hereabouts of getting up a ninety-mile practice ride, to be pulled off some time in October, probably. The idea is for the ride to start from Raleigh and circle around so as to take in such points as Louisburg, Franklinton, Henderson and Durham, with a stop-over at each place. Incidentally there will be entertainment of one sort or another at each place, such as barbecues and the like, that give promise of special enjoyment to counteract the strain of the practice ride.

The State's prison authorities promise to have the work of grading and putting in order of the National Guard rifle range here resumed within two weeks. There remain especially the work of digging the rifle pit and setting up the targets. Officers here have provided the site through long-term lease, the State prison has furnished convict labor for grading it, and the range will be taken care of by the A. and M. college, for the privlege of practicing by the cadets. Plans are being made now for competitive shoots during fair week, when a squad of marksmen can come to Raleigh from any company in the State, taking advantage of the very low State fair rates.

Mr. Hubert Rand died last night at the home of his father, Capt. W. H. Rand, after an illness of two years and longer. He contracted tuberculosis, and spent quite a while in New Mexico in the hope of regaining health, but to little avail. He returned to his people here a short time ago, and has steadily declined, until the end came last night. He was 26 years old, unmarried, and was for quite a while a valued salesman in the mercantile establishment of Hunter Brothers & Brewer. The funeral service was held this afternoon at 5 o'clock.

Owing to the absence of Mr. C. H. Poe abroad, during the next six months the duties of the secretaryship of the State Literary and Historical Association will be performed by Dr. D. H. Hill, of the A. and M. College. This announcement is of special importance to those authors who intend to compete for the Patterson Cup this year. All books and magazines intended for inspection by the judges in this competition for the best literary production of the year are to be sent to Dr. Hill, who will transmit them to the judges. The Patterson cup is now neatly and conveniently stored in a case especially prepared for it, at the Olivia Raney Library. The magazine articles or books entered in competition for the cup must be written between September 1, 1909 and September 1, 1910.

BIG RALLY OF FARMERS.

Those of Beaufort County Gather at Washington, Guest of City.

(Special Star Correspondence.)

Washington, N. C., Aug. 11.—Today was a gala day in the annals of Washnumbers of farmers from all over the county as well as the adjoining counties began pouring into the city to attend the mammoth barbecue and picnic dinner given by the business men of the city to the farmers and tobacco growers of this section. The barbecue dinner was given in the large new tobacco warehouse recently completed, tnd for the purpose of bringing together the farmers and the business men prior to the formal opening of the tobacco season in this city. The Washington concert band was present and furnished inspiring music for the occasion and after the dinner quite a number of brilliant speeches were made by noted speakers of the city and county. Dr. J. C Rodman acted as toastmaster and filled this important position in his usual easy and graceful manner. About 2,000 guests were present and enjoyed the dinner. The assembling together of this large number of farmers and affording them an opportunity to become better acquainted with the business men of this city will result in much good from a commercial point of view. The new warehouse will open for business on Tuesday, August 23rd, and the indications point to a very successful season.

Why waste sympathy on E. Spencer Blackburn now when he is out of politics? Four years ago the organization was abusing him world without end; now he is being shown great sympathy, but he does not need it. He is in far better business than politics. Report has it that he is up in Watauga county running a magic lantern show and giving lectures on the Panama canal, the price of admission to which is 15 cents. What does a man thus "heeled" care for the political game?—Greensboro Record.

The Best Hour of Life.

is when you do some great deed or discover some wonderful fact. This hour came to J. R. Pitt, of Rocky Mt., N. C., when he was suffering intensely, as he says, "from the worst cold I ever had, I then proved to my great satisfaction, what a wonderful cold and cough cure Dr. King's New Discovery is. For after taking one bottle, I was entirely cured. I can't say anything too good of a medicine like that." It's the surest and best remedy for diseased lungs, hemorrhages, lagrippe, asthma, hay fever—any throat or lung trouble 50c, $1.00. Trial bottle free. Guaranteed by Robt. R. Bellamy.

AFFAIRS IN COLUMBUS.

Nomination of Hon. J. A. Brown. County Politics—Crops, Etc.

Whiteville, Aug. 12.—The nomination of Hon. Joseph A. Brown, of Chadbourn, for the Senate, gives entire satisfaction to the Democrats of this county, and every one seen conceeds it was the best and wisest thing that could have been done for the party. Several old-line Republicans say they intend to support Mr. Brown, and had he been nominated for Congress at Wrightsville Beach, there would have been no contest. He has before represented Columbus county in the House, and this district in the Senate, and the people never had a better member. Mr. Brown is a worker, and will do for his district what he has done for his immediate section around Chadbourn.

The Star representative has seen a number of Democrats, supporters of both Messrs. Clark and Godwin, and the unanimous opinion is that the people will stand by and endorse the action of the committee of five and the State Executive Committee. The Godwin men want a direct primary, but will abide the action of their party leaders, it is believed.

The Farmers' Union is growing very fast in Columbus county, and now has a membership of over 800. They have organized a store at Mollie, and are agitating the location of one at some central point on line of railroad.

The Whiteville Lumber Company, so it is reported, will next week resume work completing their railroad to Reaves Ferry, on the Waccamaw river. There is a story in circulation that one of the lines building to Southport has secured control of this link, but the report cannot be confirmed, as the parties behind the enterprise are very reticent.

The county candidates are keeping close at home, waiting for the committee now in session at Wrightsville Beach to take action. The people are badly divided, and local candidates are waiting for the troubled waters to settle.

Mr. J. J. Frazier and daughter, Mrs. R. H. Green, of Hazelhurst, Ga., are on a visit to Whiteville, their former home. Mr. Frazier is chairman of the Democratic committee in his county. He says that Hoke Smith has Joe Brown defeated for Governor, beyond a doubt, and will carry over 100 counties.

The Teachers' Institute adjourns tonight, after an interesting session of two weeks. About 80 teachers are in attendance, and they all say they were vastly benefited.

Farmers in town this week say crops are much better than expected, in spite of the excessive rainfall. Cotton, as a general thing, is fruiting well, but the crop will be late maturing. The largest corn crop ever grown in our county is now made, but owing to rain much fodder is spoiled.

A few months ago Postmaster A. L. McCaskill was one of the most loyal supporters of the Greensboro Daily News, being a stockholder in the company publishing the paper. The postmaster spoke of it as "our" paper and boasted of the success "we" were making of it. Of late the News has been waging a hot campaign for Duncan, its controller, against Morehead. McCaskill lined up with the Butler-Morehead faction against the paper in which he owned stock and against the president of the corporation of which he was a member. He belongs to the wing of the party represented by the Caucasian which says the vilest things about the News that could be said of a newspaper. It's funny. That's all. "Strange bedfellows."—Fayetteville Index.

Chairman Eller could not have selected a stronger or more conservative committee to act on the Sixth district muddle nor one with which the people of this district would have been better satisfied. Some Democrats in Cumberland county declare Godwin was regularly nominated, some say Clark is the regular nominee and a few say neither has been regularly nominated according to the plan of organization.—Fayetteville Index.

The Wilmington league team may not have won the laurel wreaths of victory but there will be real baseball on the banks of the Cape Fear when the married men cross bats with the bachelors in that city next week. We trust that the Asheville Citizen will be present, for there will be an unexcelled opportunity of gaining some sidelights upon its favorite topic. —Charlotte Observer.

The railroad conference recently held is now said to have been called for the purpose of a "liberal construction" of the new railroad law. We hope that this does not mean an attempt at the former policy of construction so broad as to lose the law in the perspective.—Richmond Virginian.

If the two wings of the Republican party continue to pull apart, we imagine that the tail of the elephant will be found in Cannon's hands. He is always behind the beast.—News and Courier.

Life on Panama Canal

has had one frightful drawback-malaria trouble—that has brought suffering and death to thousands. The germs cause chills, fever and ague, biliousness, jaundice, lassitude, weakness and general debility. But Electric Bitters never fail to destroy them and cure malaria troubles. "Three bottles completely cured me of a very severe attack of malaria," writes Wm. A. Fretwell, of Lucama, N. C., "and I've had good health ever since." Cure stomach, liver, and kidney troubles, and prevent typhoid. 50c. Guaranteed by Robt. R. Bellamy.

RETURNED THE CHANGE.

An Experience on a Train Between Metz and Paris.

"For scrupulous care and trouble taken to return change I have never heard of anything that equaled an experience of mine on the railroad between Metz and Paris," said a national guardsman the other day. "I had been studying the battlefields about Metz, and when I decided to get back to Paris I converted most of the money I had left into francs.

"It was a hot day in August, and the second class compartments were so crowded that I decided as we stopped at a town near the French border to change to a first class coach. There was a supplement to pay, and the only German money I had was in twenty mark pieces. The official who made the transfer did not have the proper change, and while I was waiting for him to come back with the 12 marks and some pfennigs that belonged to me the train moved off, and I gave my money up for gone.

"About 11 o'clock that night the train stopped at a town about halfway to Paris. There was only one other occupant of my compartment, a man who had got on at some station in France. Soon after we stopped the door of the compartment was opened and a man inquired which of us had given a twenty mark piece to be changed at the station in Germany. I replied that I was the individual.

"'Come with me, monsieur,' he said. So I alighted and followed him into the station office.

"There I found that my change had been telegraphed on, and he had the sum due me already counted out. There were a lot of receipts and things to sign, and the train was held up almost fifteen minutes on my account, but I got my money and a lot of satisfaction."—New York Sun.

"There is no excuse for drowning," says a Collier's Weekly writer, who dwells upon the ease with which any one can learn to swim. This statement is calculated to make those who have already been drowned feel rather bad.—Charlotte Observer.

Struck a Rich Mine.

S. W. Bends, of Coal City, Ala., says he struck a perfect mine of health in Dr. King's New Life Pills for they cured him of liver and kidney trouble after 12 years of suffering. They are the best pills on earth for constipation, malaria, headache, dyspepsia, debility. 25c at Robt. R. Bellamy's.

Saturday, August 13th, 1910. ....

The suggary watermelons raised in eastern North Carolina would make a Virginian's hair curl so tight it would make him say "Ouch!"

Senator Bristow, insurgent, who hails from Kansas, furnishes the reason why Senator Aldrich's retirement won't cause consumers to shed tears by the bucketfull.

The dog catcher scoops in a good many curs with his pole and net, but that is no reason why Marion Butler should expect to succeed in catching Democrats by his "local self-government" net.

The more corn we grow, the more hogs and cattle we can raise and fatten. By raising plenty of corn we will make our own meat and milk and butter, as well as our own bread. Keep your money at home, and "board and live at the same place."

The Morehead machine might be a good one, but, with Marion Butler as the chauffeur, patriotic North Carolinians will clear the track so it can go over the precipice by itself. Butler once steered a whole lot of white people into "fusion," and now they hardly will permit him to steer them straight for the radical camp.

When the tariff hogs squeal in this campaign, it is not up to you to go to their assistance. It is their funeral and not that of the voters. When a consumer who can barely make both ends meet votes to put an unreasonable and unjustifiable tax on himself and his family for the benefit of folks worth a million dollars more than he will ever have, he needs somebody to shoo the bats out of his belfry.

The Butler-Russell combination gave Wilmington a government appointed from Raleigh by Governor Russell. The city was negroized and the riot, or "revolution," on the 10th of November, 1908, did the rest. The Butler-Morehead combination pretends to be the devotee of "local self-government!" Even tradition has never given us an instance when the ass was ever successful in disguising himself as a lion.

Says a Republican contemporary: "McNinch can do no more for the people of the Ninth District than can any Democrat." Well, then, let him stay home with the people and do more than he possibly can in Congressman Webb's seat at Washington. Mr. McNinch can show what he can do by insurging against himself for trying to undergo a change of politicla convictions when he is old enough to know better.

Says the Charlotte Observer: "Ex-Senator Butler seems to have been about 100 per cent in the background at the moment of the Morehead-Butler combination's triumph. Sure."

Colonel Butler's potency had been exercised before the convention met. He had set the trap and dodged out of the way, so the game would walk into the trap without being frightened away by his presence. That is astuteness which, otherwise interpreted, is real foxy.

A New York grafter, who was exposed in connection with a water works deal, was elected to office two years afterwards. When surprise was expressed that a man of his shady reputation could command enough votes to get elected, he said: "The fool voters in two years forget everything that happens in a political way." Doubtless Butler and Morehead think the people of North Carolina have forgotten what happened to them when Butler and his "fusion" put a thousand incapable negroes in office in their State. Our memory has a volcanic eruption at the thought of it. Does yours?

NO DEFENSE FOR LOOTING.

If Senator Aldrich had been concerned in a reduction of the tariff in the interest of the people instead of increasing it for the benefit of corporations and trusts, he would not have been compelled to frame a reply to charges brought by an indignant member of his own party.

Five weeks ago at Winfield, Kansas, Senator Bristow made a bold tnd vigorous speech, denouncing the action of his party in deceiving the people by revising the tariff upward for the benefit of trusts and manufacturers. The insurgent Kansas Senator made a red-hot attack on Senator Aldrich who engineered the tariff bill through Congress, fiercely charging him with increasing the duty on rubber goods, alleging that Aldrich was a director of the Rubber Trust and that the Aldrich family held 34,450 of the preferred and common stock in the company known as the Rubber Trust. He denounced Senator Aldrich for providing more tariff benefits for a trust in which he and his family are largely interested and pointed out the injustice and immorality of the thing. The effect of Senator Bristow's indictment was that Aldrich used his position as tariff engineer to provide more plunder from the people for further enriching himself, his family and his associates engaged in monopolizing the rubber business in the United States.

It took Senator Aldrich five weeks to make an attempt to vindicate himself from the serious imputation of the Kansas insurgent Republican. Indeed, Aldrich intended to ignore Bristow but the Republican compaigners, notably an Illinois Republican Congressman, have been up against it in their campaign in attempting to explain to the people about the robber tariff and the rubber tariff, and so pressure was brought to bear on Senator Aldrich to make an explanation—not in defense of himself, but for the defense of the party. The Star yesterday published the reply of Senator Aldrich to the Bristow charges. It was adroitly framed and intended to deceive, and if one were to read it, it would appear that Senator Bristow is not only ignorant but is so unprincipled as to libel Senator Aldrich and commit a great outrage against the Republican party.

In the first place, Senator Aldrich declares the increase of the duty from 30 to 35 per cent. on certain manufactured rubber articles was "for the purpose of making the tariff uniform on kindred articles and facilitating the labors of the customs offices." It is all right to make the tariff duty "uniform" and certainly something should be done to relieve the labors of the poor customs officers, but what's the matter with increasing the duty instead of decreasing it to a "uniform" rate of 20 to 25 per cent. so the consumers of rubber manufactures could also get some relief while the poor, burdened customs officers were having it made lighter on them?

That explanation of Senator Aldrich was so deliberately specious that he knew that the explanttion required an explanation, so he says the duty was increased "upon recommendation of the Treasury experts, solely for administrative purposes," and not for "protection purposes or at the instance or for the benefit of any domestic manufacture." It must be presumed that the words "administrative purposes" covers a lot of sins and will be accepted as an explanation by people who do not know what in the thunder is meant by "administrative purposes." The increase was hardly made to secure more revenue for the government. The tariff experts must have known that if they wanted to get more receipts for the Treasury, a reduction of the tariff would have provided more money than would an increase of the duty. Reduced duties cause more increase in imports and the larger the imports the more duties there are to collect for the Government. It was demonstrated by the Cleveland administration that a reduced tariff produces more revenue than a high or a prohibitive tariff, and that acounted for the fact that the Cleveland administration left a big Treasury surplus for a Republican Congress to squander, which was soon done.

Senator Aldrich acknowledges that "I am a stockholder and a director in the Inter-Continental Rubber Company," which is the big sounding name for the American branch of the rubber trust. He furthermore acknowledges that "it is true that an increase in the rates took place in paragraph 463 which included certain manufctures of India rubber, with other items." He denies, however, that his rubber company or any of its subordinate companies "ever had the slightest interest, direct or indirect, in the manufacture of any article covered by the change in rates on rubber manufactures." The public is led to believe by Senator Aldrich's explanation his company handles the raw rubber of which the production in 1909 was approximately 175,000,000 pounds, of which his company handled only 10,000,000 pounds, or less than one-sixth of the whole. That might appear very small, but when all the rubber consumers of the world are taken into consideration it is pretty large. As a matter of fact the United States consumes more rubber for manufacturing purposes than any other country on the Globe.

It may or may not be true that none of the companies which manufacture rubber goods on which the duty has been increased are not subsidiaries of Senator Aldrich's rubber trust, and it may be true that his company is not "directly" interested in the "manufacture" of any article covered by the change in rates, but that certainly is not denying that his company is interested in the rates. Whether his company is interested in the manufacture of rubber goods or not, it sells the raw material out of which rubber goods are manufactured. The bigger the duty on manufactured rubber goods the bigger are the profits of the rubber manufacturers and certainly that would warrant the rubber trust in demanding from them a bigger price for raw rubber. The fact of the business is, a stiff tariff tax levied on the people for the benefit of the rubber trust and the manufacturers, and whether it is the exhorbitant duty of thirty or thirty-five per cent, or whether or not Senator Aldrich and his family and associates get any of the benefit or not, it is plain that some other preditory persons do get the benefit at the expense of consumers. No kind of an explanation from Senator Aldrich or any other Republican tariff mogul can explain that away. A protective tariff on rubber is levied and somebody gets the benefit.

Senator Aldrich nor any other astute logician can justify the morality and justice of an infamous policy which taxes the masses for the enrichment of the protected classes and special interests. People should not permit themselves to be fooled by explanations that are evasive and beclouded for the purpose of keeping them in the dark. Senator Aldrich believes in a protective tariff, for it has made him a multi-millionaire, and it is that class of people who are placed in charge of a tariff bill which involves taxes that the struggling masses have to pay. Protection is a policy by which his party empowers special interests to prey upon the people and he believes it is justified. He may consider himself a man of integrity, according to his standard, and he may fancy that his convictions as to a protective tariff are honest, but that does not keep a protective tariff, such as the Republican party levies for its favorites, from being a gross wrong against human rights—against humanity which is entitled to equality in burdens and benefits.

The great tariff manipulator denounces Senator Bristow and other insurgents as "traitors to the Republican party" because their sense of justice has rebelled against the tariff outrage and because they have the manhood to take the side of the people and not that of the specially protected interests. The insurgent Senator may be a traitor to the protected freebooters and buccaneers but by remaining in the Republican ranks in an endeavor to convert it to the cause of the people he is loyal to his party and is doing what will prevent it from ultimate and inevitable destruction.

The only trouble with the insurgents is that they are deluded into the belief that they can effect a reform inside the hide-bound, high tariff Republican party and thus entertain the impossible hope of correcting its immorality. Aldrich in his denunciation and vituperaton of them declares that they "prate about the treatment of the tariff as a moral question," and that is where Aldrich is correct for once. It is decidedly an immoral policy, and the best thing the insurgents can do for the relief of the people will be to ally themselves with the Democratic party which is solidly arrayed with millions of voters against that immoral policy. If all the people who are seeking relief were to unite their forces, the Republican party and its protection monster could be overthrown.

The 1910 campaign is now on. Let her go. Lay on, Macduff, and make Butlerism sick.

The Morehead-Butler combination constitutes a Motley crew that will go to the bottom in November.

A fashion rumor says dresses are to be still lower in the neck. Nevertheless, they will come higher in price.

President Taft pays an extra price for his collars, but Secretary Ballinger continues to get "cuffs" free of charge.

Major E. C. Duncan now knows how James J. Jeffries felt when he went up against the ropes. "They sure did something to me!"

LOCAL SELF GOVERNMENT.

If you see anything's ears sticking from beneath its disguise it is the "local self-government" plank in the Republican State platform adopted at the Greensboro convention last Wednesday. It is a cunning device but is such a palpable subterfuge that a blind mule could see it and give the masquerader a good imitation of the horse laugh.

People admire bold declarations in a party platform but they have a contempt for cunning, trickery and deception when it is practiced by any party, it mttters not which. "Local self-government!" In the abstract it is Republican buncombe and in the concrete it is a delusion and a snare. It is greased lightning designed to strike Democrats who favor local option and is muffled thunder forged so it won't startle prohibition Republicans.

The "local self-government" plank in the Greensboro platform is a product of the most arrant hypocrisy. It holds out the idea to anti-prohibitionists that it is the embodiment of "local option"—local option under another name—and it is to be palmed off on prohibition Republicans who may be susceptible of being misled into the belief that it means a declaration that communities should govern themselves. It means "local option" to fool Democrats, and it is fake "local self-government" to fool Republicans. It is a "cat in the meal tub" so covered as not to make prohibition Republicans run, and is a "jack o' lantern" to lure local option Democrats to the bog.

Butlerized "local self-government" pretentions by the Republican party in North Carolina should neither delude Democrats nor humbug Republicans. It is intended by the Republicans to mean "local option" to catch votes, while it is not a guarantee that it will re-open the whiskey question or affect the question one way or the other. It is not intended for "local self-government" but its aim in that direction is to hold Republicans in ranks while it fools Democrats to come in.

The people know the Democratic party is the local self-government party, while the Republican party not only ignores local self-government but even destroys States rights whenever it can. When the Republican-Populist fusion crowd had North Carolina in its grip fourteen years ago, it gave Wilmington a fine sample of local self-government. The "fusion" Legislature placed the government of Wilmington in the hands of Governor D. L. Russell and he appointed the rulers of the city, including four negro Aldermen. The government which Wilmington didn't get by Republican local self-government was chased out with Winchester rifles and riot guns.

"Local self-government!" Bah! ! Nobody should be fooled.

CURRENT COMMENT.

Who would have thought the farmers of North Carolina were so far behind those of this State that the terracing of land to prevent washing is almost unknown? Yet the Charlotte Chronicle declares that practically no terracing is done in North Carolina, and that there is a movement on foot in Cabarrus county to secure a special railway car to take a party of Cabarrus farmers to Alabama and Georgia to inspect the system of terracing in vogue in those Sttes, and see for themselves the benefit of terracing. There is no use going so far as Georgia and Alabama; in almost any part of the progressive State of South Carolina the people of North Carolina may witness the excellent effects of terracing.—Greenville (S. C.) News.

Piracy, it seems, is not obsolete yet, nor to find it need one go so far as China, where the capture of the stronghold at Colowan by Portuguese forces has been thrilling enough for the golden days of the Spanish Main, and should yield stuff for a stirring "juvenile," since the war was provoked by the reckless way in which the pirates kidnapped boys from school in Canton—many children were found among the emaciated victims chained to walls when the citadel fell. In this country piracy appears in a tamer guise; nevertheless, Trenton, N. J., has just had its first case since the establishment there of a Federal Court, and the libel of the gasoline launch Dolly M. ought to inspire some marine poet with a ballad. The alleged piracy consisted in boarding the scow Dyre and carrying off 500 feet of four-inch warp, 900 feet of five and one-half inch hawser, and 400 feet of one-inch bowline, besides setting the scow adrift so that she came near being wrecked. The details gave a vivid picture of maritime life up to date.—Springfield Republican.

There is a homely saying, "If I cannot be corn, I will not be shucks"—that is, if the best is denied one, he will not take the leavings.

When there was a vacancy on the Federal bench in North Carolina, the Republican bosses trotted up the following Republican lawyers among others to Washington for the job.

Ex-Judge W. S. O'B. Robinson.
Ex-Judge E. W. Timberlake.
Thurston T. Hicks.
District Attorney Harry Skinner.

President Taft devoted several months to looking them over on the hoof and reading their records and getting acquainted with their standing. After doing so, Mr. Taft said that not one of them was "fitten" and refused to appoint either one of them or any other Republican. Having decided after examining them all carefully, that the North Carolina Republicans didn't have a "fitten" man, the President appointed Judge Connor, a lifelong Democrat, who was then Associate Justice of the Supreme Court.

And now the Republican State Convention comes along and asks the people of North Carolina to vote to put these four men on the State bench, whom President Taft said were not "fitten" to sit on the inferior Federal bench. The convention named for the Supreme Court bench: Chief Justice, T. T. Hicks! Associate Justices, Harry Skinner and E. W. Timberlake.

Superior Court Judge in the Sixth District—W. S. O'B. Robinson.

He says to North Carolina—does the Republican president, in substance: "I examined these men and found they were not good enough corn for the Federal bench." Then the North Carolina Republican State Convention says: "Give us for the Supreme Court bench men Taft said were 'not fitten.' We take shucks."

In the campaign that is to follow, all that the people will say is this: "If Mr. Taft said these four Republican lawyers were unfit for the lowest Federal appointment, we do not care to take his 'leavings' for our highest court"—News and Observer.

From England comes the report of a discovery which will permit electric companies to furnish current at greatly reduced rates, thus putting the use of electric household appliances within the reach of many families One of the reasons why electric current has heretofore been so costly lies in the fact that the amount of current consumed at various hours of the day varies greatly. In the evening, for instance, when a great city is turning on its electric lights, the current consumption for a few hours may be twenty or even one hundred times more than during the middle of the day. A similar difference on a small scale may be found in the individual house, when instead of a single light burning in a dark closet, a score or more of the incandescents may be turned on at once and the whole building illuminated. As a consequence of this widely varying demand for current, the electric power companies are obliged to install plants large enough to take care of the maximum amount which may be required. At the same time they are able to use this maximum amount of current for only a few hours out of each twenty-four.

The English invention is a device for storing heat produced by electric current. The device itself is a metal cylinder of no great size, which is used at the same time as a water heater. By turning a single tap at the top of this cylinder, water can be obtained at any desired temperature, from tepid to boiling. When the electric current is desired for any purpose, such as cooking, lighting or running a small electric moto, the current is automatically shut off from the cylinder. When the cooking is over or the lamp and motor are turned off, the current automatically runs back into the water heater. By the use of this device the consumer is able to contract for the regular and constant use of the same amount of electric current during the whole twenty-four hours. So effective is the heat storage apparatus that less than 10 per cent of the stored heat is dissipated during eight hours.—Greenville (S. C.) News.

ENGINEER KNIGHT INJURED

When Engine of Passenger Train Plowed Into Sand Bank at Scott's Hill and Derailed—Not Seriously Hurt.

The engine of passenger train No. 64, on the Wilmington & Newbern division of the Atlantic Coast Line, which leaves Wilmington at 5:50 A. M., was derailed and partly overturned by running into a sand bank on the tracks about 100 yards south of Scott's Hill station at 6:20 o'clock yesterday morning and Engineer Eugene S. Knight, about 50 years old, of this city, was thrown from his cab and painfully bruised, but not seriously injured. A severe rain storm passed over that section about 2 o'clock yesterday morning, washing a great quantity of sand on the tracks.

The train was running very slowly approaching the station, otherwise the accident might have been more serious. The fireman jumped and escaped uninjured. None of the passengers was injured. A report of the accident was made immediately to the local offices and a wrecking train was dispatched to the scene while Dr. Pride Thomas, one of the Coast Line surgeons went by automobile and brought Engineer Knight to his home in this city.

After landing safely on the ground and noticing the plight of Engineer Knight the fireman went at once to his assistance. Persons living in the neighborhood also went to the assistance of the engineer and he was made as comfortablfe as possible until the arrival of Dr. Thomas. A message from Mr. Knight's home last night was to the effect that he was resting as comfortably as could be expected and that the attending physician does not expect anything serious to develop. Mr. Knight was operated upon for appendicitis a few years ago and it is said that the incision never quite healed over, and in the accident yesterday he was bruised near the point of incision. There were no other bruises, it was said.

The wrecking train sent out from this city arrived in a short time and traffic was resumed by 10:50 o'clock.

The accident yesterday morning recalled to the minds of a number of persons the several narrow escapes from death or serious injury experienced by Mr. Knight since he took the throttle for the Coast Line many years ago. He has been in a large number of accidents and in several received bruises, but was never seriously injured. He has had several rather miraculous escapes.

Mr. Knight is well known in Wilmington and has many friends who sincerely hope that he will be able to be out in a few days at most.

NEGRO EXCURSIONISTS.

Nearly 1,700 of the "Colored Population" From Hamlet Yesterday.

Nearly seventeen hundred—or to be exact 1,676 negro excursionists reached the city yesterday on two sections of a special train over the Seaboard Air Line from Hamlet and intermediate points. The train was in charge of Capt. J. Cullen Jones and he was assisted by Capt. Smith and one or two other Seaboard conductors. It was doubtless the largest colored excursion ever brought into the city in ten years and the streets were lined with the chocolate visitors until the return trip last night at 8 o'clock. As many of the colored people as could be accommodated were taken for a trip down the river on the steamer Wilmington while as many more went to Wrightsville Beach, the Tidewater Power Company for the first time in its history being reduced to the expediency of providing separate cars wholly for white and colored persons, these being placarded prominently so that "he who runs might read." While in the city for the most part, the excursionists were quiet and orderly, though several razor entertainments are reported to have occurred in some of the coaches on the way down and what occurred on the return trip last night, "deponent knoweth not."

STREET WORK BEGINS SOON

Commission Instructs City Engineer to Advertise for Bids for Curbing, Grading and Paving Certain Streets.

It is now believed that, within a few months at most, work of permanently improving the streets of the city will be commenced under the direction of the Street Commission. At the regular monthly meeting of the body yesterday afternoon the city engineer was instructed to prepare proposals and specifications asking for bids for curbing, grading and paving certain streets of the city.

The meeting was presided over by Capt. Louis Belden, the chairman, and in attendance were all the members of the commission, City Engineer Humphreys and Clerk J. F. Gause. The streets for which the engineer is instructed to advertise for bids for curbing, grading and paving materials are: Front, from A. C. L. depot to Castle; Market, from Fourth to Seventeenth, both sides of the street; Fourth, from A. C. L. bridge to Red Cross; Red Cross, from Fourth to Front; Dock, from Second to Water; Hanover or Brunswick, from Fourth to Nutt; Church, from Surry to Eighth; Ann, from Front to Second; Eighth, from Dock to Castle.

It is understood that the proposals and specifications will be prepared and bids called for within the next few days, and that it is hoped to begin work probably in October.

Upon motion of Commissioner Parsley, seconded by Commissioner Worth, the board decided to employ counsel to search the record and establish the obligation of the Seaboard Air Line to the City of Wilmington, to build suitable bridges, and keep same in repair over their cuts running through the city. Mr. Parsley was appointed by the chairman to employ counsel in accordance with the resolution.

The commission was in session for nearly three hours, discussing at length many matters pertaining to the streets and bridges across railroad tracks in the city.

STEAMER MONTAUK ARRIVES.

Comes From Bremen With Fertilizer Products—Schooner Clears.

After a good voyage across from Bremen, Germany, the British steamer Montauk, Captain Souter, arrived yesterday with a cargo of fertilizer constituents, to be discharged to the Wilmington Compress and Warehouse Company. The steamer has 100 tons of muriate of potash for the Caraleigh Phosphate and Fertilizer Works, of Raleigh, and a large part of the remainder of her cargo is to a New York firm.

The Montauk is a steamer of 2,202 tons net register, and comes to Messrs. Alexander Sprunt & Son. On the passage Captain Souter sighted a rather strange object at sea, and made the following report to the custom house yesterday: "Passed at position (off New Foundland coast), given a large black conical buoy with staff and black flag attached. Temporary flag lashed to permanent staff, which carried apparently a cage on top. White painted figures or letters on side of buoy indistinct."

The schooner John H. May, Captain Stille, cleared yesterday for New York, with cargo of 335,000 feet of lumber, from the Cape Fear Lumber Company. The vessel will sail today.

C., society man, club man and former officer in the United States Navy, who is now supposed to be in Richmond, is being searched for at the request of his dying father, with whom he had a disagreement about a year ago, following which the son left home.

The father, C. C. Wrenshall, became critically ill a short time ago, and now wishes for a reconciliation.

Descriptions of the young man have been sent to Richmond, and an effort is being made to locate him. He attended services at the Westminster Presbyterian Church here Sunday.

Mr. Charles N. Wrenshall spent several weeks in Wilmington during the early Summer, and prior to his last visit was engaged in work here for about two months. He went from Wilmington to Richmond, where he stated he had a position.

SWIMMING RACES PLANNED.

Interesting Event in Banks' Channel on Saturday, August 20th.

A swimming contest, in which all amateurs are privileged to enter, is being arranged by the Tidewater Power Company for Saturday, August 20th, in Banks Channel, and will doubtless prove to be the most interesting of the aquatic events of the Beach this season. The distance will be a mile, and the winner in the race will be awarded a cup. Further details of the swimming event will be announced within the next few days. It will be one of the few contests of this kind held during the season, and it is expected to attract much interest.

The Recorder's Court.

Only one case was investigated in the Recorder's court yesterday morning, the defendant being Maggie Davis, colored, charged with disorderly conduct. She was let off upon payment of costs. A case against Walter Wheeler, colored, charged with the larceny of a pair of shoes from a negro woman, was continued until today. The defendant is also accused of aiding a negro woman in forging an order for a pair of slippers a few days ago and which case will be investigated in Justice Harriss' court today.

Negro Excursionist Arrested.

Wesley McCain, colored, of Lumberton, one of the excursionists to the city yesterday, was arrested at corner of Front and Chestnut streets, late yesterday afternoon, on the charge of carying concealed weapons. On his person were found a pistol, two watches, a long knife, and a bottle of whisky. Being unable to give bond, he was lodged in the city prison to await hearing this morning before the Recorder.

A DOWNTOWN FIRE STATION

Aldermen Decline to Accept Recommendation That Mills Property Be Purchased—Another Site is Considered.

The Board of Aldermen, in called session for half an hour yesterday at noon, to hear report of the special committee with reference to the advisability of establishing a downtown fire station and recommendation as to a desirable site, declined to adopt the recommendation of the committee that the Mills livery stable property, on east side of Second, between Princess and Chestnut streets, be purchased and converted into a central fire station, and voted to continue the committee with instuctions to secure an option on the MacMillan property, directly across the street from the livery stable.

The meeting was called to order shortly after 12 o'clock by Mayor Walter G. McRae, who presided, with Aldermen Rehder, West, Hinton, Ellis, Stone, Bonitz and Fales, and City Clerk and Treasurer Fowler in attendance. Mayor MacRae stated that the meeting had been called for the specific purpose of hearing the report of committee with reference to a downtown fire station, and that no other business would be considered. Alderman Stone, who, with Aldermen Rehder and Ellis, compose the committee, submitted an oral report of the work of the committee, which held a meeting at noon Thursday to consider the question. Mr. Stone stated that the committee considered it advisable to establish a downtown central fire station, owing to the rapid growth of the business district. He also mentioned the fact that if quarters are to be maintained at Fourth and Princess streets, it will be necessary to make improvements to the present building or erect a new one, as the present structure is not only unsightly, but unsafe. After having settled the question of establishing a downtown fire station, the committee took up the matter of an available and satisfactory site, and unanimously decided that the Mills livery stables property, upon which an option had been secured, was the most suited for the purpose of several under consideration. Alderman Stone stated that the city was given an option on the property for $15,000. The property has a frontage on Second street of 50 feet, and runs back 148 feet, and on it is located a comparatively new brick building. Mr. Stone estimated that $3,000 would cover the expense of remodeling the building for a modern fire station, making a total cost of $18,000. In this connection he spoke of the property at Fourth and Princess streets, its value and the amount necessary to erect a building there to meet the requirements. He estimated that the building would cost $19,000, and valued the site at $10,000, making a total of $29,000. Therefore it would be the part of wisdom to purchase the Mills property and convert the building into a modern fire station. It would not only be cheaper, but the firemen would be centrally located.

Alderman Hinton stated that he was just told that all or a part of the MacMillan property, directly across the street from the Mills stables, could be purchased for $200 a front foot. The property fronts 99 feet on Second street, and has a depth of 136 feet. Fifty front feet, said the alderman, would be sufficient for a handsome fire station, at a cost of $10,000. A building especially adapted to the needs of a modern fire station could be erected for $7,000 or $8,000. He considered that it would be far more satisfactory to purchase 50 feet of this property and erect a building for the firemen than to purchase the Mills property and attempt to remodel the building. A new building would be more conveniently arranged and would probably be cheaper. Alderman Bonitz concurred with Alderman Hinton, and brought out the fact that the MacMillan property opens on the government property, which he considered made the property worth $2,000 more than it would otherwise be worth, as there is no danger of the rear being closed up by other buildings.

A vote was then taken on the report of the committee, and the board declined to accept the recommendation that the Mills property be purchased. A motion of Alderman Hinton that the committee purchase as much of the MacMillan property as needed for a fire station met a like fate, but a motion that the committee be continued with instructions to secure an option on the MacMillan property, and also an estimate of the probable cost of a building to meet the requirements was carried. The meeting then adjourned.

Another Charge Against Him.

Jim Register, a young white man, tried before the Recorder recently on the charge of stealing two bicycles from the Queen City Cycle Company, and who appealed from the judgment of the court, was taken from the county jail, where he has been confined since the hearing, yesterday morning, and given preliminary trial before justice Harriss on another warrant charging larceny of a bicycle from the same company. The bicycle is valued at $45. The justice found probable cause and bound the defendant over to the next term of Superior Court and in default of bond the young man went back to jail.

Biograph Subject at Bijou.

The programme at the popular Bijou theatre today will be featured by the presentation of an excellent Biograph subject, "Never Again," said to be one of the finest comedies ever offered at the amusement resort. It teaches two things to be avoided in life—first, being a peacemaker and, second, helping a friend to wreak revenge. Another picture of interest that will be shown is "The Little Truant," a comedy that is a roar from start to finish, and also will be offered, "The Wrong Road," a dramatic picture, concluding with the reuniting of mother and child.

HOLLY IS HELD FOR COURT

Coroner's Jury Finishes Work and Makes Report—More Witnesses Examined—Contents of Lad's Stomach to Raleigh.

While not attempting to fix the responsibility for the death of Edward Cromwell, the 19-year-old lad who lost his life in the Rock Springs Hotel fire early Wednesday morning, the coroner's jury, at the conclusion of the third sitting yesterday morning returned a verdict to the effect that the young man was dead several hours before his body was removed from the hotel building by firemen and recommended to the coroner that J. C. Holly, the proprietor of the house, who was arrested Wednesday on a warrant sworn out before Justice Harriss, be held without bond until the next term of Superior Court for further and more thorough investigation.

This action by the coroner's jury makes it unnecessary for a preliminary investigation to be held before a magistrate. Had the jury returned a verdict fully exonerating Holly it is likely that the defendant would have been given preliminary hearing on the charge of murder before Justice Harriss, who issued a warrant Wednesday at the instance of Coroner Bell charging this offense.

Several witnesses were examined yesterday morning and certain parts of the testimony is regarded as rather material in the effort to solve the mystery surrounding the death of the young man.

The contents of the stomach and the lungs of young Cromwell, which were placed in a jar of alcohol and sealed Wednesday in the presence of the coroner's jury, were taken last night to Raleigh, and a chemical analysis will be made by Prof. Withers, chemist at the A. & M., to ascertain whether or not the young man was given a drug of any kind before his death. The organs were sent to Raleigh in the care of Chief Chas. Schnibben, of the fire department, who will return to Wilmington this morning. Mr. W. A. Scoot, deputy insurance commissioner, left on the same train but it is said that he will go to Pikeville to make an investigation as to the amount of household effects Holly is alleged to have shipped to that place three days before the fire.

The Verdict of the Jury.

The following is the verdict returned by the jury after the conclusion of the examination of witnesses yesterday morning:

"Wilmington, N. C., Aug. 12, 1910.

"We, the undersigned coroner's jury, having been duly summoned and sworn by Dr. C. D. Bell, coroner of New Hanover county, to hear the evidence in the case before us, and after hearing the evidence of the witnesses, find that Edward Cromwell came to his death several hours before the body was removed from the Rock Springs Hotel by firemen about 3 A. M., and that the facts and circumstances introduced before this jury warrant the holding without bond of J. C. Holly for the Superior Court of New Hanover county.

Holly's condition continues rather serious, according to those who have seen him in his cell at the county jail, and is reported to have had a convulsion yesterday, being attended by Dr. W. D. MacMillan, the county superintendent of health. Holly is said to have been a user of opiates and it is stated that the convulsion yesterday probably resulted from the deprivation of his accustomed stimulants. Fellow prisoners are said to have stated that he apparently suffers great agony. It was learned yesterday from a person who has known Holly for many years that Holly was subject to certain spells described as fits and that he suffered greatly during the attacks. This man also spoke of the numerous charitable deeds of Holly.

In course of the investigation yesterday morning Coroner Bell stated to the jury that he had ascertained that Holly purchased from the Mission Pharmacy about 10 o'clock on the night of the fire a 16-ounce bottle of Bateman's drops, and explained what the drug contains, laudnaum, etc. This discovery of the coroner was told of in yesterday's paper, but at that time it had not become a part of the record of the jury's investigations. Dr. Bell also stated that he had ascertained that Holly purchased two drachms of strychnine, one on July 2nd and the other July 26th. The fact that Holly purchased the drugs is considered a strong link in the chain of circumstances.

The first witness yesterday morning was Mr. John King who testified that he had been boarding at the Rock Springs Hotel for about ten weeks and was at the house on the night of the fire, retiring about 10:30 o'clock. When he went upstairs he saw two ladies and two gentlemen seated in the lobby of the hotel. The witness' room was on the upper story, while that of Cromwell was on the one just below. He knew Cromwell, who was employed at the hotel to assist the cook, and saw him Tuesday night just after supper clearing away the dishes. The witness said he got up about 12:45 A. M. and went back to bed about 1:30 A. M. He saw no signs of fire and heard no noises. At 2:30 o'clock he was awakened by his room mate, Mr. Robert Brown, who was awakened by the smoke in the room. The witness and Mr. Brown, were helped out of a window onto the roof by firemen. He had never had any conversation with Holly about insurance and did not know of any disagreements between Holly and the boy. He had heard Holly speak of having fits, but never saw him when he was seized with an attack.

Mr. R. N. Carney, janitor at the Southern building, the second witness, knew Cromwell and saw him Monday afternoon sprinkling lime around the hotel. The boy, who frequently talked to witness, had at one time asked for a job as elevator boy at the Southern building. The lad, he said, first stopped with "Big Ike," the shoemaker, and was there for a few days. On two occasions the boy told witness that Holly had beaten him with a broom stick and at another time he said Holly had choked him stiff. The witness never had any conversation with Holly prior to fire and Holly was never present when he talked to the boy. He saw Holly about 5 A. M. following the fire standing with several others. Holly said that he was not going into the house until the insurance people had examined it, but said nothing about the boy. The witness did not know anything of the boy's family. It appeared from witness' testimony that on one occasion, the lad stated, Holly struck him with a broom handle because he did not think the floor was being swept right.

After Dr. Bell had made his statement about the evidence that Holly had purchased drugs, Dr. Russell Bellamy, who had been summoned as an expert, was called to the stand. He told in detail the effect of strychnine poisoning, speaking particularly of the rigidity produced. Speaking of the circumstances surrounding the death of young Cromwell and the condition of the body at the time it was found, Dr. Bellamy gave it as his opinion that death ensued between 10 and 11 o'clock on the night of the fire. He did not think water would effect rigidity or coldness of the body. In cases of strychnine poison, he said, there would be congestion of the lungs; chloroform also causes some congestion, as would also a great deal of smoke. Dilation of the stomach might have been caused by something eaten. Dr. Bellamy stated in reply to a question that "If a person was unconscious, he would have to be very near death in order to be in such condition as not to move his arm when burned." Hot water, he said, applied to a dead body soon after death would cause skin-slip if applied in large quantities. This is regarded as very important. It will be recalled that Dr. MacMillan, who performed the autopsy on the body of Cromwell, gave it as his decided opinion that the young man was alive when burned because the skin on the body slipped when handled and that this would not be possible had death ensued prior to the burns.

Dr. Bellamy referred to a conversation he had Wednesday with Mr. John King, who was in his office, relative to the boy. Mr. King was then recalled to the stand and asked to relate the conversation. He testified in substance as follows: "I saw Cromwell Tuesday night between 7 and 8 o'clock. He had two suit cases in his hands and I asked him where he was going. He replied that he had rather be here or go to hell. I thought it a funny expression. The boy had his bags packed. He went back to his room with the grips and I didn't see him again. He went to room 4, the one he usually occupies. I judged from the expression on the boy's face that he did not want to go to the country with Holly and would rather go to hell than leave with him, his remarks referring to such an alternative. I did not hear any fuss that night. Messrs. Canady, Brown, Howland and I stayed in the house Howland and Canady were away that night. Two ladies also stayed there. Holly ocupied the first room to the left from the entrance of the hotel. Miss Mary West, the cook, stayed toward the front of the house. There were a lot of empty rooms."

The testimony of Mr. King relative to the conversation with Cromwell is the first evidence adduced that shows a possibility of suicide. The alleged remark of young Cromwell can but add to the mystery surrounding his death.

The next witness was Mr. Robert Brown, who roomed with Mr. King at the hotel. He retired about 11 o'clock and did not hear any peculiar noises in the house. He saw Holly in the hall at 9:45 P. M. with several others. Cromwell told the witness that he did not know if he was going away; that he preferred to remain here. He had never heard Holly quarrel with the boy and never saw him strike the lad. The witness told of the discovery of the fire and his escape, being practically the same statement as made by Mr. King.

Mr. A. J. Burriss, a fireman, testified that after Holly was arrested he said, "God knows no one could find any scars on the boy's head." The witness continued: "After I told him to say nothing, Holly said, 'No one knows anything about the affair except myself, the boy and God.' When we got on the car, he said, 'Poor little fellow, the last thing I gave him was a banana and told him to eat it. The last time I saw the boy was when I had a spell and the boy brought me a glass of water.' When carried before Justice Harriss he made the same remark about no one knowing anything about it except himself, the boy and God. I saw the square box in the room at the hotel and it seemed to have a bad odor. There appeared to be a yellow looking spot in the bottom of the can. I saw Jackson pull handkerchiefs from between the springs and mattress. The can was on the bed when I left the building Thursday morning."

Mr. W. A. Scott, Deputy Insurance Commissioner, who came here Thursday in response to a notice received at his office in Raleigh to the effect that a suspicious fire had occurred in this city, stated yesterday that while he would continue to work on the case as it may relate to incendiarism, he would not take any action at this time, since Holly will be held until Superior Court by commitment of the coroner. He spoke also of the thorough manner of the investigation conducted by the jury and its evident desire to get at the real facts so far as possible in an endeavor to solve the mystery.

Mr. H. E. Robbins, local agent for the Greensboro Life Insurance Company, which held the policy for $2,500 on the life of young Cromwell stated yesterday that some had criticised him for not notifying the home office of the mysterious death of Cromwell, when, as a matter of fact, he said, he telegraphed the company Wednesday night as follows: "Cromwell dead. Holly, assignee and beneficiary, put under arrest. Advise by long distance if you desire further information. Coroner's jury tomorow 9 o'clock."

He stated that he did not receive any reply from his telegram.

Mr. Scott received a telegram yesterday morning from Insurance Commissioner Young stating that Prof. Withers, of the A. & M. College would make a chemical analysis of Cromwell's stomach for the sum of $200. Arrangements were made yesterday afternoon by which the stomach and lungs were sent to Raleigh last night, as stated above.

Mr. Keith Attended Convention.

Collector B. F. Keith, who figures in the "progressive" element of the Republicans in this State, arrived home yesterday from Greensboro, where he attended the State convention. He declared the election of Congressman Morehead to the chairmanship a great victory for his side, and personally has strongly supported him since the Congressman first announced his intention of seeking the place. He was pleased with the harmonious attitude of the convention, and what he termed a reorganization of the Republican forces in this State.

THE DEMONSTRATIONS.

One of Best Yet Given Last Night. Today's Programme.

Before a large and appreciative audience, Mrs. Whitted conducted the best of the series of demonstrations last night. The menu, consisting of planked trout, Tartare sauce and potatoes a la Duchess, was greatly enjoyed by those present, both in watching the preparation and disposing of it, after it had been passed around for inspection. The planked trout made the hit of the demonstration, and with a garnishment of parsley, tomatoes and sliced lemon, with decorations of cream potatoes, it was tempting in the extreme.

This afternoon Mrs. Whitted will prepare and serve the following menu: At 4:30 p. m., tomato and cheese rarebit, broiled steak, Hollandaise cucumber boats, Marguerites. At 8:30 p. m., broiled steak, Hollandaise sauce, French fried potatoes. At the close of the evening demonstration the Favorite Gas Range will be given away. The Tidewater Power Company have about completed the arrangements as to having Mrs. Whitted with them for another week, and the details will be given, most likely, in the Sunday's issue in these columns.

AGENTS' OUTING AT BEACH

Representatives of Jefferson Standard, Raleigh, Enjoy the Attractions of the Seashore—Meetings Being Held.

With a thoroughly enjoyable banquet in the Seashore Hotel Cafe last night, the annual meeting of the agents of the Jefferson Standard Life Insurance Company, of Raleigh, which has been in progress at Wrightsville Beach since Thursday night, came to a close, but most of the 37 representatives of the company in attendance will probably enjoy the attractions of the seashore over Sunday.

A number of impromptu speeches were made around the festival board last night. Some pertained to life insurance and were of a most interesting nature. Before the pleasant event came to an end Mr. P. D. Gold, Jr., vice president and general manager of the company, was presented with a handsome silver service, the gift of the agents. The speech of presentation was made by Mr. Detwiler, of Athens, Ga., and was gracefully and feelingly responded to by the recipient, who stated t hat he would always prize the gift very highly indeed.

The organization held its first session Thursday night in the assembly hall of the Seashore Hotel, presided over by Mr. P. D. Gold, Jr., vice president and general manager of the company. The agents listened with interest to the addresses by Mr. Henry C. McQueen, president of the Murchison National Bank, of Wilmington, and Mr. Pearsall, also of this city. Both made interesting and practical addresses that were well received by the life insurance men. Following the meeting the party enjoyed a boat trip on the sound.

The feature of yesterday morning's session was an address by Dr. Albert Anderson, of Raleigh. It was a practical address, delivered in a most pleasing manner, and held the interest of the audience, for he dealt with matters that deeply concern them in their work.

Announcement was made of awards of prizes as follow: For largest increase in business, J. S. Liles, Orangeburg, S. C.; largest amount of premiums, C. C. McInnis, Raleigh; largest number of applications written, J. T. Carney, Atlanta, Ga.

The banquet last night brought the gathering to a close. The 37 representatives of the company in attendance are from Georgia, North and South Carolina. All declare the meeting to have been a most pleasant and enjoyable one.

Mr. R. H. Gwaltney, of the local office of the company, was chairman of the reception committee, and left nothing undone that would tend toward the pleasure and comfort of the visitors.

PATTON RE-INDICTED.

In Connection With Alleged Cotton Bull Pool.

New York, Aug. 12.—It became known today that James A. Patten and others indicted in June by a special Federal grand jury for conspiracy in restraint of trade, in connection with the alleged bull pool in cotton, have been re-indicted by a regular Federal grand jury. The indictments were sealed and filed two weeks ago, but who was named in them did not come out until tonight.

Counsel for the defendants question the legality of the first indictments on the ground that the special grand jury was improperly drawn, and a second indictment was returned to cover any possible defects. Charles A. Kittle, of the firm of S. M. Pell & Co., of New York, named in the first indictment, escapes in the second, because he was called as a grand jury witness, although forced to testify by the court.

Mr. Blount lectured both nights to delighted audiences.

The meeting of the Teachers' Association was well attended, and was not only a pleasant occasion, but a most successful and beneficial affair. It was conducted by County Superintendent Cromartie, who was ably assisted by Prof. Woodhouse and Miss Myriam McFayden.

CAN'T BE SEPARATED

Some Wilmington People Have Learned How to Get Rid of Both.

Backache and kidney ache are twin brothers.

You can't separate them.

And you can't get rid of the backache until you cure the kidney ache.

If the kidneys are well and strong, the rest of the system is pretty sure to be in vigorous health.

Doan's Kidney Pills make strong, healthy kidneys.

James Hansley, 309 N. Fifth St., Wilmington, N. C., says: "For some time my back and kidneys troubled me, no doubt due to constant standing. I had dull, nagging backaches and a sharp pain across my loins. I could not stoop or lift without having twinges throughout my body. The kidney secretions contained sediment and were too frequent in passage. When I learned of Doan's Kidney Pills, I procured a box from Robert R. Bellamy's Drug Store and used them as directed. In a few days the backache and other annoyances ceased and have not returned since. I give this testimonial in the hope that some other sufferer from kidney trouble will be benefited thereby."

For sale by all dealers. Price 50 cents. Foster-Milburn Co., Buffalo, New York, sole agents for the United States.

PROPOSED MEMORIAL TO BILL NYE TO BE $5,000 BLDG. AT STONEWALL JACKSON TRAINING SCHOOL

Committee Appointed by North Carolina Press Association Decides That the Lamented Humorist Shall be Honored in a Practical Manner—State Newspapers Delegated to Receive Contributions to the Cause.

The committee appointed at the recent meeting of the North Carolina Press Association to take in the matter of a State memorial to Bill Nye, met in Salisbury, Wednesday, July 6th, in formal session, and after hearing all the propositions before it unanimously decided:

1. That the memorial to the lamented humorist shall take the form of a memorial building, to be one of the group and a part of the Stonewall Jackson Training School, generally known as the State Reformatory, in Cabarrus county, near Concord.

2. That the building, furnished and equipped as the trustees of the institution may direct, to the best advantage for the rescue of errant boys, shall cost not less than $5,000, and shall be known as the "BILL NYE MEMORIAL BUILDING."

3. That the following newspapers be designated to receive and acknowledge subscriptions to the fund for this building, said funds to be transmitted promptly to the treasurer, JOHN M. Julian, Editor of the Salisbury Post:

The Star, Wilmington.
The Observer, Charlotte.
The Evening Post, Salisbury.
The Citizen, Asheville.
The News and Observer, Raleigh.
The News, Greensboro.
The Uplift, Concord.

4. That while the committee believes that this memorial should be distinctively North Carolina's tribute to the lamented man of letters, it deems it wise, in order to ensure the prompt success of the movement, and further to permit the friends of Bill Nye outside the State an opportunity to contribute to this movement, that contributions from outside the State should be gratefully received and acknowledged, while not solicited.

The committee believes further that it made a wise and happy selection in the form of this memorial; that nothing it might have conceived would have brought greater joy to the heart of the gifted, kindly man whose memory it is designed to perpetuate than the great work of making useful citizens of wayward boys, and that were he present with us in the flesh today it would have the stamp of his approval. Furthermore the committee bespeaks the hearty co-operation of the brethren of the press especially, and all good citizens generally in this undertaking. It is a labor of love—one that has already been too long neglected, to the shame of North Carolina. Let us put our shoulders to the wheel and show to the world what North Carolina can do for the man it delights to honor.

JOHN M. JULIAN, Treasurer.

COTTON MARKET UNSETTLED

Result of Reaction and Talk of Improved Weather—Nervous and Irregular—Opened Steady and Closed Quiet.

New York, Aug. 12.—The cotton market was nervous and irregular today and sentiment seemed to be rather unsettled as a result of yesterday's reaction and the talk of improved weather in the Eastern belt. But there was nothing to indicate any breaking of the drouth in Southern and Central Texas a considerable buying power was encountered on soft spots, generally speaking offerings were well barely steady, net 4 points higher to absorbed, with the market closing 7 points lower.

The opening was steady at a decline of four points on September, but generally 14 points higher on covering. Cables were lower than expected, however, and there was no sign of aggressive support from the bull leaders so that sellers of yesterday were encouraged to renew their offerings. Prices eased off in consequence, and during the first few minutes a few stop-loss orders were uncovered on a decline which carried the market about 5 to 6 points net lower.

Not a great deal of long cotton came out on this set back. On the contrary buying orders seemed to be that numerous on a scale down and ifter the Western belt forecast was published the market firmed up on covering by early sellers and moderate support from the bull leaders. The detailed Texas weather report showing no rain of consequence and continued high temperatures helped the rally, together with bullish weekend figures, and prices at one time showed net gains of some 5 to 8 points. Later there was a renewal of bear pressure, or scattering liquidation for over the week-end, owing to the failure of the upward movement to attract a broadening demand from outside sources, and at the close active months were a point or two under the final figures of Thursday. The Western belt forecast predicted showers in North Texts, but held out no promise of rain in the droughty section, and the week-end figures indicated a decrease of about 100,000 bales in the visible supply of American cotton for the week.

Receipts at the ports today 4,419 bales against 1,142 last week, and 1,620 last year. For the week 10,000 bales agtinst 6,773 last week and 11,057 last year. Today's receipts at New Orleans 75 bales against 242 last year and at Houston 4,171 bales against 1,605 last year.

Spot cotton closed quiet; middling uplnds 15.70; middling gulf 15.95; sales 10,216 bales.

Cotton futures opened steady and closed barely steady.

Texas Drouth Leading Topic on the Market — Unfavorable Reports from Eastern Belt—South's Spot Markets.

New York, Aug. 12.—Texas and its drought has been the chief topic in the cotton trade this week. No rain worth mentioning has fallen in the sections where it is needed the most, in the Central and Southern districts, and there is a general belief that further deterioration in the crop has taken place, as temperatures have been reported daily at many stations of from 100 to 107 degrees The effect of these conditions has been to cause active buying, and a further rise in the price of the new crop months. August has moved up in company with the new crop, but interest in that month has been comparatively small.

Unfavorable reports are still being received from some parts of the eastern belt, despite the prevalence most of the time for a fortnight of favorable weather conditions. The crop in some sections is still said to be small and late. Reports of spotted condition of the fields are numerous. Some take the ground that over three-quarters of Texas there has been a considerable decline in the condition of th crop since the data for the last government reports were gathered. The belief still exists among many that the total yield is certain to fall below 12,000,000 bales, unless exceptionally favorable weather conditions prevail during the remainder of the growing and the picking season. At times reactions have occurred, owing to reports of rains in Texas. The reports of precipitation caused active selling for both sides of the account. It is a nervous, weak market. Over the region east of the Mississippi the weather during the week has been in the main favorable, and reports continue to be received from not a few sections of marked improvement in the crop outlook.

The spot markets at the South have been quiet. Liverpool spot transactions on most days have been small. The trade news of late has been rather less encouraging. At times of late the market has acted in a somewhat over-bought manner. The speculation is mainly professional. The outside public give it a berth, owing to the high price. The new crop movement is increasing. But spinners, foreign and domestic, have bought freely during the week. Houses with Southern and Western connections have made purchases, and there has been active covering of shorts. Today the market was irregular, declining at one time on lower cables and liquidation, but rallying later on hot-dry-weather in Texas and covering of shorts.

THE GRAIN MARKET

Chicago, Aug. 12.—Sales of wheat to Germany were made today by Chicago houses and also at Philadelphia. In addition Baltimore confirmed 500,000 bushels export sales, mostly to France. Directly as a result prices here advanced three times in succession but attempts at profit taking caused reactions so that the close was weak at a net gain of 3-8 to 5-8. Corn showed a final rise of 7-8 to 1, oats 1-4 to 3-8 and provisions off 2 1-2 to 12 1-2.

COTTON MARKET YESTERDAY.

Cables From Liverpool Disappointing —Trading Was Moderate.

(Special Star Telegram.)

New York, Aug. 12.—Liverpool was disappointing with a low spot demand, and liberal orders for foreign account supplied the limited requirements of our market. Trading is moderate and prices fluctuate easily. The market, while on the tenter-hooks about Texas conditions, is over bought at times and quick realizing lowers prices, as there are few new buyers.

The heat in Texas is maturing the plant rapidly, so hastening early receipts. Houston 1,200 this week, 18,000 last week, 3,000 last year. The movement in Texas is attracting more attention than the dryness. General rains would create free selling.

SLIGHT ACTIVITY IN STOCKS

Inspiration for Buying Found in Character of Annual Railroad Reports —Strong Bank Return Expected—Conditions.

New York, Aug. 12.—Inspiration for some buying of stocks today was found in the character of the annual railroad reports which are being made for the fiscal year ending with June. The prominent place held today in the number of shares dealt in and the extent of the advance by Reading, Union Pacific and Southern Pacific was largely due to the wide surplus of the year's earnings over the dividend requirements shown by the two Harriman railroads and by Lehigh Valley, the traffic conditions on which are very similar to those in the Reading.

The strength of the Pacifics was aided as well, by the indirect effect of the week's increase in the Canadian Pacific dividend owing to the semblance of traffic conditions on the different transcontinental railroad systems.

The preliminary estimates of the currency movement pointed to another strong bank return tomorrow. The arrival today of $3,000,000 of imported gold will figure in the showing. The gain by the banks from sub-treasury operations is less than last week and there is a sharp decline in the volume of receipts by express from the rior, the balance of the movement remaining, however, largely in favor of New York. The increase in ban for the week on all accounts is computed to amount to between eight and nine million dollars.

Further weakness was shown by American Smelting, but the general market broke away from that influence. Bonds were firmer. Total sales par value $1,251,000. United States 3s registered advanced 1-8 and the coupon declined 1-4 per cent. in the bid price on call. Total sales for the day 483,800 shares.

THE OUTLOOK FOR TRADE.

Increased Arrivals of Fall Buyers Feature of the Week.

New York, Aug. 12.—Bradstreet's tomorrow will say:

Increased arrivals of Fall buyers and a measureable increase in house trading resulting from favorable weather are features reported at leading Western and Eastern markets. Heaviest buying is, however, by converters and manufacturers, and jobbing styles are mainly of small quantity, for which buyers see ready sale. Retail trade shows relatively less expansion, awaiting, apparently a freer movement of crops to market.

Among the industries, iron and steel are quiet; the quietest of the year, in fact, according to leading trade authorities. Demand for material from automobile manufacturers is quieter. In cotton goods there is an increased firmness noted, widespread curtailment and high raw material price making holders less inclined to consider tny but top prices.

In the building industry the pause indicated in early preliminary reports is confirmed by later advices. The lumber trade is quiet, and some price concessions are noted.

Shoe dealers are reported buying carefully from Eastern manufacturers believing that lower prices are possible.

Worsted manufacturers have done better so far in the line of Spring goods than have woolen manufacturers. Business failures in the United States for the week ending August 11th were 231 against 166 last week and 219 in the same week of 1909.

DRY GOODS MARKET.

VISIBLE SUPPLY OF COTTON.

Hester's Statement Shows 1,653,516 Bales for Week.

New Orleans, Aug. 12. — Secretary Hester's statement of the world's visible supply of cotton, issued today, shows the total visible to be 1,653,516, against 1,796,062 last week and 2,152,153 last year. Of this the total of American cotton is 839,516, against 951,062 last week and 1,606,797 last year, and of all other kinds, including Egypt, Brazil, India, etc. 814,000, against 845,000 last week and 552,000 last year.

Of the world's visible supply of cotton there is now afloat and held in Great Britain and continental Europe 812,000, against 1,577,000 last year; in Egypt, 44,000, against 63,000 last year; in India, 509000 against 239000 last year, and in the United States 289,000, against 280,000 last year.

The Salisbury Post, which is usually well informed on political matters, says that in the event of Congressman Morehead's election as chairman it is certain that the prohibition issue will have to be threshed over in North Carolina again, and the results will be far-reaching. A determined fight will be made for control of the Legislature and wet Democratic territory will be worked to a finish. There will be no bushwhacking about it, for if Morehead is elected, a prominent local Republican who is on the inside tells the Post, a local option plank will certainly be incorporated in the platform. The programme further is for Morehead to make the race for Governor two years hence and in the event of a Republican Legislature in 1913, Butler is to succeed Senator Simmons. The Duncan programme, it is understood, is to keep quiet on the prohibition question and make the fight along old lines.—Charlotte Chronicle.

OARSMAN RACE ON POTOMAC

Seven Championships in Amatuer Rowing Awarded—Two Contestants.

Washington, Aug. 12.—Seven national championships in amateur rowing were decided at the opening today of the 38th regatta of the National Association of Amateur Oarsmen on the Potomac. The Argonaut Rowing Club of Toronto, Canada, won two of the championships, while oarsmen from New York, Detroit, Baltimore and Springfield, Mass., were awarded the remaining five. Tomorrow afternoon comes the final clash, with six more championship honors sought.

At least one record for the United States was broken, officials claim. That was in the senior quarter mile dash, over which William Mehrhof, of the Nassau Boat Club, of New York, drove his craft in 1:24 3-5. In 1891, Joseph Bergin, of Cambridge, Mass., at the National Regatta held that year too, on the Potomac made tae quarter mile in 1.29.

In the first race for the intermediate four oared shells, the Pennsylvania Barge crew, the Argonauts, the Ariels, of Baltimore, and the St. Charles Association, of Waltham, Mass., rowed, the order of finishing being Argonauts, Ariels, Pennsylvania barge and St. Charles.

In the second race, the Senior Quarter mile dash Menrhof, of Nassau, N. Y., took the lead and kept it all tae way.

The race of the Junior eight oared shells was the most stubbornly contested of the day. From the start the Potomacs and the Detroits took the lead. With the finishing spurt the Detroits went over the line five and three fifths seconds ahead of their real rivals.

The plucky Virginians from Richmond, who arrived in the city only today after illness had disarranged their crew, had put every ounce of their strength into the struggle in order to beat out the Arundels, of Baltimore, who finished last. The Arundels won the Senior International Four oared race by two lengths. The Intermediate double sculls race was won by the Nassaus of New York.

Fred Fussel and Fred Shepperd with a show of superior form to G. W. Engle and S. F. Gordon, of the Vespers, carried the Harlem colors to victory in the senior double sculls. The Vespers did not finish.

The Intermediate eight oars shells went down the course in an exciting race, the Argonauts, the favorites having a hard go with the Detroits. Two full lengths separated them at the finish however. The Potomacs were third, w the Harlems and Crescents of Philadelphia, trailing along behind. The Virginians and Arundels did not start.

Newark, N. J., Aug. 12.—The prosecution of Mrs. Caroline B. Martin and Mrs. Mary Snead will not be interferred with in any way by the death of Virginia Wardlaw, the third sister indicted in connection with the mysterious death of Ocey M. Snead, the East Orange bath tub victim. This statement was made today by Louis Hood, special counsel for the State in the Wardlay case when his attention was called to reports that Miss Wardlaw's death yesterday might cause the prosecution of her two sisters to be dropped.

Mr. Hood said the three sisters are jointly charged with the commission of the crime as well as with aiding and abeting it and he would not concede that the case against Mrs. Martin and Mrs. Snead had been weakened in any way by the death of Miss Wardlaw.

ion of the committee for whom he has repeatedly professed the highest regard, he has seemed rather evasive and his position is yet not quite clear Mr. Godwin feels that from the people he has a trust committed to him that is higher than any voice or dictum of a committee and according to this declaration, it is not quite clear what he will do in the event of a decision against his nomination. He still maintains his position that another primary is the only solution of the difficulty and seems unshaken in his purpose to retain the nomination regardless, unless the primary is held all over again. Among some sound political advisers another primary or convention would only tend to still further disrupt the party and so it goes. The supporters of Mr. Godwin, for the most part seem to be willing to abide the decision of a committee of such unquestioned standing and political integrity, but Mr. Godwin, according to all advices at the beach, is non-committal upon this important subject.

There were still further arrivals yesterday to attend the hearings and Democrats from all over the district are manifesting a keen interest in the proceedings. Major E. J. Hale, of Cumberland, was unable to attend the sessions of the committee but it is understood that he has sent a letter to the chairman in which he reiterates the position that there has been no nomination. Among the arrivals yesterday otner than those named were Major A. J. McKinnon, of Maxton, one o. the defeated candidates; J. Bayard Clark, campaign manager for Hon. O. L. Clark; Dr. L. B. Evans, chairman of the Credentials Committee of the first convention; Editor W. B. Harker, of Maxton, whose consistent and steadfast fight for his friend and countyman, Major. McKinnon, has been the admiration of the District; H. L. Lyon, of Columbus, manager for Mr. Clark in that section; E. G. Davis, Esq., manager for Mr. Cook; C. L. Koonce, G. Herbert Smith and Jackson Greer, Esqs., of Columbus, and a number of others not now recalled. New Hanover is well represented in the gentlemen named and by George Rountree, Esq., of the Credentials Committee of the first convention; J. O. Carr, Esq., one of Mr. McClammy's managers; Marsden Bellamy, Esq., and Mr. James H. Cowan, chairman and secretary, respectively, of the New Hanover County Convention; W. P. Mangum Turner, Esq., one of the floor leaders of the New Hanover delegation in the convention; ex-Mayor A. G. Ricaud, chairman of the New Hanover delegation at the convention; Capt. Edgar G. Parmele, one of the old-time leaders from New Hanover; Geo. H. Howell, Esq., of the New Hanover delegation, while among the Godwin supporters from New Hanover were noted Messrs. Paul Satcnwell, J. B. Mercer and J. H. Sykes, who took part in the second convention which nominated Mr. Godwin.

While the hearings are in progress no one is admitted into the rooms of the committee, which is sitting as a judicial body and maintaining perfect silence as to their impressions of the testimony. Several of the witnesses were asked yesterday for a personal opinion of the best means of settling the controversy and it is needless to say that many and divers were the ways suggested. Mr. Godwin is quoted as saying that the committee did not inquire of him whether or not he would abide its decision. The hearings will be continued today and will likely not be concluded until well into this evening.

The night session continued until after 11 o'clock last night and members of the committee were decidedly weary when they came from the room and "turned in" for a night's rest and to digest the occurrences of the day. The session this morning will begin at 9:30 o'clock. The witnesses examined last night were J. O. Carr, Esq., Maj. A. J. McKinnon and K. M. Council, of Wananish.

Members of the committee were most cordially greeted by a host of their friends in the district at the beach yesterday. While ex-Congressman Kluttz and ex-Judge A. C. Avery are not so well known in this section of the State, ex-Governor Jarvis and ex-Governor Aycock are the idols of the East and they were most cordially received by many warm personal friends and the other gentlemen of the committee made a number of new acquaintances and friends.

HEYBURN STOPS "DIXIE."

Idaho Senator Made Another Stab at South in Seattle.

Seattle, Wash., Aug. 12.—Senator W. B. Heyburn, of Idaho, dislikes "Dixie."

He created a sensation at a reception given to Congressman T. R. Hamer, at Wallace, Idaho, last night by stopping the orchestra while the musicians were playing the popular strains. Col. Hamer had just finished his address and the orchestra had started a medley of well known airs. About the sixth number in the medley was "Dixie." The Senator leaped to his feet, strode across to the musicians and cried out: "This is a Republican meeting. We want no such tunes here."

The amazed musicians stopped immediately. The Senator strode back to his seat. After a moment of silence Mayor Hanson arose and closed the meeting.

A TAR HEEL WAS CHOSEN.

Fred J. Coxe, of Wadesboro, An Officer in Fraternity.

Niagara Falls, N. Y., Aug. 12.—The biennial convention of the Phi Delta Theta fraternity closed today with the selection of Chicago as the meeting place for 1912. Among the officers elected were President, Charles J. Lamkin, Keysville, Mo., and Secretary, Fred J. Coxe, Wadesboro, N. C.

New York, Aug. 12.—The Ketchel-Langford bout, to have been held at the Fairmont Athletic Club on Tuesday next, has been called off. Instead, big Al Kaufman, the Australian, will go ten rounds on the same date. Ketchel has a sore foot and is suffering with boils, and his manager asked that the bout be cancelled.

and Mr. Taft listened with great interest. Mr. Aldrich also told Mr. Taft of his plan of make a speech during the Fall in one of the Western States defending the Payne-Aldrich Act as a whole, and particularly replying to the charges made in reference to the cotton schedule.

Senator W. Murray Crane, of Massachusetts, has been one of the active forces in the new political movement. It was he who went West to see Secretary Ballinger and it was also he who went to see Senator Aldrich at Warwick, R. I., last Sunday.

Postmaster General Frank H. Hitchcock, former chairman of the Republican National Committee, has been at Beverly twice within the week. There have been stories in progress of friction between Mr. Hitchcock and Senator Crane and some political jealousy as to their influence with the administration. These stories are declared here to be without foundation.

Mr. Hitchcock participated in the conference which the President had this afternoon with four Republican leaders from Tennessee. The Republicans are laying plans to capture that Southern State this Fall, and they hope to do so with the aid of Independent Democrats. It was said today that they were not proceeding under the theory that they can win on a straightout Republican proposition, and that the candidate to be named for governor will be a man who will be acceptable to the Independent Democrats.

The Republicans are anxious to hold the ground for independent political action in the State which they say was gained at the recent judicial election, in which the independent judiciary candidates won from the regular Democratic nominees who, named largely through the influence of Gov. Patterson, were overwhelmingly defeated.

The Tennesseeans who talked with the President today were Representative Austin, Newell Sanders, the State chairman; Lee Brock, a member of the Republican State Executive Committee, and Judge G. McHenderson

Mr. Hitchcock also has been having a series of conferences with New York State leaders which may have an important bearing upon the campaign.

Senator Dick, of Ohio, came to Beverly today, but decided to await the arrival here tomorrow of Warren G. Harding, the Republican nominee for governor of Ohio, before calling on the President.

Although admitting that the fight in Ohio is going to be a hard one; that the campaign must begin early and be carried into every part of the State Senator Dick believes the Republicans will win. "It's going to be an old fashioned fight and an old fashioned victory," he declared.

HOMICIDE IN ANSON.

Milton Tillman Cut to Death by Tom Burch at Wadesboro.

(Special Star Correspondence.)

Wadesboro, Aug. 12.—This morning about 3 o'clock Milton Tillman, colored, cut to death Tom Burch, also colored, in a fight near Mariah Sellar's house, on the street leading to the cotton mill in South Wadesboro. Dr. E. L. Thomas, a colored physician, was summoned to the wounded man, but when he reached him he had died from the effects of the cut, which severed the jugular vein. Burch was also cut on the left shoulder, though the fatal wound was a cut from the point of the left ear to the middle of the throat.

Tillman, who boards with Mariah Sellars, was awakened about 1 o'clock by Mariah to go with her and hunt her daughter, Mary Sellars, who was missing from the house. They hunted about the several negro neighbors' for the girl, but could not find her. About 2:30 Tom Burch drove up with Mary and said that they had been to Rocky Ford Church. Tillman told the girl that her mother was uneasy about her, and she said that Tom had asked her to ride and then would not bring her home. Mariah then came out and began to upbraid Burch for the way he had done. Burch cursed her and then struck her, knocking her down. As she was getting up he knocked her down a second time, when Tillman ran in between them. Burch turned his attention to Tillman, striking him over the head with a whisky bottle. Tillman knocked Burch down twice and then walked off, according to witnesses. Burch followed Tilman, saying that he was not satisfied. In the second encounter, in which the whisky bottle was being used as a club by Burch, Tillman succeeded in getting out his knife, which he opened with one hand and his teeth, and used it with the above resuts.

Coroner Fenton, accompanied by the county physician, Dr. J. M. Covington, Jr., examined the body at an early hour this morning and turned it over to relatives of the dead man. The examination of witnesses before the coroner's jury was held this afternoon at 3 o'clock. Tillman surrendered to Policeman Allen shortly after the homicide, and is in jail.

HEAD SEVERED IN FALL.

Remarkably Horrible Death of New York Balloonist Yesterday.

New York, Aug. 12.—"Benny" Prinz, a young balloonist, met a horrible death this evening at the close of the aviation meet at Asbury Park, N. J. In making a double parachute drop, the second parachute failed to open, and he fell more than 2,000 feet.

As the swaying body neared the ground it struck the limb of an apple tree, and the boy's head was transfixed on the limb like an apple on a split. As it struck the ground the headless body was crushed into an uncognizable mass.

Prinz was 26 years old, and a daring balloonist. With Samuel Hartland, of Newark, he went up in a hot air balloon. At the height of 1,000 feet Hartland cut loose with one parachute and made a successful landing. Lightened by the drop of Hartland, the craft shot up until it reached about 4,000 feet. Then Prinz cut loose. Those who saw his figure say he fell 500 feet before his first parachute opened. He sailed slowly earthward for another thousand feet, and then cut loose again. There was another terrific drop of about 500 feet when the second parachute opened. It checked his fall for a second, then the ropes snapped and the body of the young man shot straight down.

Over and over the figure turned, faster and faster, and gaining momentum with each revolution. He was shooting down head first when he crashed into the tree impaling his head on a limb. In the headless trunk every bone was broken.

Several of those who witnessed the accident fainted from the horror of the tragedy.

OKLAHOMA BANKS ABANDONING GUARANTEE PLAN.

Washington, Aug. 3.—According to information received here, Oklahoma banks are finding the bank guarantee plan unsatisfactory and a number are now changing back to the national system. In all about 150 national banks in Oklahoma adopted the bank guarantee plan when it was started, so that it will take a good deal of time to complete the transfer of these institutions back again to the national system should all of them determine to return to their old allegiance. One bank has sent a circular characterizing the State Guarantee Law as burdensome without adding anything to the stability of the bank. au 7 tf
